FALL-SINCLAIR TRIAL ENDS ABRUPTLY—START JURY PROBE

Juror Kidwell Now In Custody Of U. S. Marshal

Juror Who Was Cause Of Mistrial In Fall-Sinclair Case Is Held

SWEEPING PROBE BEING LAUNCHED

Federal Investigation Of Jury Tampering Is Begun This Morning

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Edwa[illegible]ell, the self-styled "good yes and no man" on the Fall-Sinclair jury, was taken into custody by Deputy U. S. marshals today within a half hour after a mistrial was declared.

Kidwell was halted by the deputies as he tried to leave the federal building. He appeared reluctant to accompany them but after they spoke to him a moment, he went along willingly.

The juror was taken immediately to the grand jury room on the third floor of the building. Attaches in the office of U. S. Attorney Peyton Gordon said he had not been "booked" on any charge.

After being taken into the grand jury room, Kidwell was told he did not have to testify unless he so desired. He waived immunity, it was announced.

Start Federal Probe.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A sweeping federal investigation of charges of jury tampering in the Fall-Sinclair case, was under way today.

Eleven members of the jury—all except Edward J. Kidwell, the "good yes and no man", were subpoenaed to appear tomorrow before the grand jury, which began its inquiry yester-

Criticise Borah For Attacks On Farm Measures

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 2.—Resolutions sharply criticizing United States Senator Borah for his attack on the McNary-Haugen Farm Relief Bill will be presented today to farm and political leaders of a score of states meeting here today at the call of former Governor George W. Donaghey of Arkansas. Although the conference is now political in its aims to devise means of relieving the nation's farmers, caustic criticism of Borah's activities in heading off the presidential boom of former Governor Frank O. Lowden was voiced by many leaders at the meeting.

Governor Adam McMullin of Nebraska, head of the resolutions committee, today stated no recommendation of Lowden's candidacy would be made particularly as many members of the conference are Democrats who would be "embarrassed by apparently sponsoring a republican."

America Only Is New Society Rogers Suggests

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Nov. 2.—Mayor Bill Thompson of Chicago, has started a society called "America First". You send $10.00 to defray the expenses of trying to keep it "first."

Bill has the nucleus of a good idea but like any good idea its the improvements that make it.

So I hereby offer stock in a society called "America Only" to $2.00 a share.

Why be only first? Let's be the whole thing. Why spend $10.00 to be in front when $10.00 more will put you in front, the side and in the middle. All at the same time?

If everybody in America will give me $20.00 I will be more than glad to show them where we are the "only nation in the world."

Besides this money will not all revert to me, a small percentage will be spent in exterminating all other nations. Who'll be the first to display supper patriotism and join "America Only?"

Yours,
WILL ROGERS,
Founder and Treasurer.

Harry R. Boyd, 61, Is Victim Of Carbon Monoxide Poisoning

Resuscitation Efforts Are Of No Avail When Condition Is Discovered

Harry R. Boyd, 61, proprietor of the music store at 370 East Washington street, met death late Tuesday afternoon while seated in his automobile, which overcame by the deadly fumes of carbon monoxide gas from the engine, which was still in operation and in his garage at 541 East Washington street.

Efforts to resuscitate Mr. Boyd with the city pulmotor and through the efforts of a physician, were of no avail and he was finally pronounced dead by Dr. James D. Crawford. The body was removed to the Offutt morgue to be prepared for burial. It is believed that Mr. Boyd had been dead for some time when first discovered by Mrs. E. E. Linsley, 531 East Washington street, where he resided.

Call for Pulmotor.

It was shortly before 5 o'clock when the police received a call for the pulmotor to be used in an attempt to resuscitate Mr. Boyd. Detective C. C. Horner and Officer Clarence Samuels answered the call to 531 East Washington street, where Mr. Boyd resided.

The officers on their arrival found that Mr. Boyd had been overcome by carbon monoxide. He had been removed from from his machine by the time they arrived. Although there was every indication that Mr. Boyd was dead and had been for some little time, the pulmotor was used, while stimulants were injected into his body by the attending physician.

After spending approximately half an hour in attempting to resuscitate Mr. Boyd, hope was abandoned and he was pronounced dead.

According to the information given the police by Mrs. Linsley, she went down street to do some shopping shortly before 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Enroute back home, some time after 4 o'clock, Mrs. Linsley stopped at the Boyd store but found that Mr. Boyd was not there. On arriving home, she noticed smoke and smelled the gas fumes.

Starts Investigation.

Worried, she started to investigate as to their possible source. At the garage, which is immediately in the rear of the Linsley home and separated from the house by a small porch, she found the door closed and

Detroit Theatre Damaged By Bomb

Estimate Damage At $285,000 As Bomb Shatters Moving Picture Theatre

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Nov. 2.—A tremendous bomb explosion early today shattered into fragments the Tivoli, a motion picture theatre, 16330 Woodward avenue, Highland Park, shattered windows and shook buildings for blocks around, and partly buried under twisted wreckage a man who died shortly afterwards in Highland Park General hospital, and who is believed to have been one of the bombers. Damage was estimated at $285,000.

A heavy blast shook the deserted streets of Highland Park. The roof of the Tivoli theatre hurled skyward in blazing pieces, the side walls split outward, cement blocks weighing 45 pounds hurtling through the air for nearly 200 feet; and a veritable rain of broken glass littered the pavement and sidewalks.

October Breaks Several Records

Temperature Unusual For Month For Many Years Past

NO HEAVY FROST DURING MONTH

An October without snow, or killing frost and one of the warmest Octobers New Castle has ever experienced is the record of the last month according to the report of the local station of the United States Weather Bureau.

Although the records of the local station are not available farther back than 1920, E. J. Quest, co-operative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau states that at least three killing frosts have been recorded in October for the past 7 years, yet none for this year during October. Neither was there any snow fall, as in other years.

The mean temperature in New Castle for the last month was as high as 55.7 which is the warmest mean temperature reported for years. The highest temperature reported was on October 1, when 91 degrees was reported while the lowest was reported on October 26 when the mercury fell to 29.

Another feature of the weather was the many fogs of the month. Fifteen of the nights were reported as foggy and the night of October 14 is reported as the foggiest night of the year. Two thunder storms were reported during the month, one on the 3rd and one on the 31st.

The rainfall for the month although not as great as in 1925 and 1926, yet was above the average for October, 2.41 inches being reported for October of this year.

Mrs. Arthur E. Stitzinger of Philadelphia, formerly of this city who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. P. H. Reider, Lincoln avenue, returned this morning to her home.

FIVE HUNTERS FORFEIT LIVES ON FIRST DAY OF SEASON IN STATE

Rabbit And Squirrel Season Opens Tuesday With Usual Fatalities

ESTIMATE FIFTEEN PERSONS INJURED

Numerous Bodies Found In Woods By Hunters While Scouring Underbrush

By S. I. NEIMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 2.—With the opening of the small game hunting season in Pennsylvania yesterday, the lives of five hunters were snuffed out and at least fifteen others were injured in accidents, a survey of the State by International News Service showed today.

Not only were persons injured, but the usual fall crop of dead bodies was discovered by hunters. Bodies that have been lying in the woods for weeks and sometimes months, and discovered only when hunters, scouring through the underbrush for game, stumbled upon them.

According to the survey of the State, International News Service found that Pittsburgh, Vandergrift, Chester and Philadelphia, each lost a citizen through the lure of the woods, and mistakes by others equally desirous of securing "a bag."

Mistaken For Squirrel

Vandergrift reported the first fatality of the season when Charles B. Carnahan, of Vandergrift, was mistaken for a squirrel and shot through the left eye while sitting in a corn field.

Carnahan's death was followed closely by a report from Scranton.

Normal And Public School Superintendents Meet At State Capital

DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF TAX APPORTIONMENT

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 2.—Distribution of state subsidies in an equitable manner to schools of the state is the most important problem now facing educators, Dr. John E. Keith, superintendent of public instruction, said in opening the annual state conference of the principals of normal schools and school superintendents here.

Dr. Keith traced the development of the principle of state aid on the basis that the commonwealth is responsible for the education of all the children within its borders. At the same time he outlined the methods by which taxes for school purposes had been raised and the manner in which the money had been distributed.

The greatest stride in taxation and subsidy distribution was made by the Edmonds law in 1921, Dr. Keith asserted. Under that plan rates are established upon the assumption that health is inversely proportionate to the destiny of population.

Although praising the principle of the Edmonds law, Dr. Keith pointed out certain of its disadvantages, among them, he said, the danger of putting too much of a premium upon the poverty of a school district.

The Edmonds act also places responsibility for determining the value of the school districts for distribution of subsidies upon the state council of education. The council is now working on the problem, he said.

Frank Spencer Edmonds, author of the school act and chairman of the state tax commission, was also on today's program.

Kidwell Before Grand Jury To Explain Error

For More Than Hour Fall-Sinclair Juryman Is Before Federal Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Edward J. Kidwell, the "yes-and-no" juror in the Fall-Sinclair trial, was closeted for more than an hour today with the federal grand jury that is investigating the incidents leading up to a mistrial of the notorious case.

Kidwell went into the jury room flanked by a pair of deputy United States marshals, although no charge has been filed against him. After an hour the grand jury recessed for lunch and Kidwell was ordered to report back for further examination at the afternoon session.

Notorious Oil Conspiracy Case Ends Suddenly

Federal Judge Siddons Orders Mistrial In Fall-Sinclair Case

JURY TAMPERING ALLEGED CAUSE

Also Declared Jury Had Been Shadowed By Private Detectives

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The six-year effort of the federal government to punish Harry F. Sinclair and Albert B. Fall for an alleged conspiracy to defraud the United States of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve ended today in a mistrial.

With affidavits before the District of Columbia supreme court sustaining charges that the jury had been shadowed by private detectives and that one juror had expressed prejudices in Sinclair's favor, Federal Judge Siddons brought the notorious case to an abrupt end and remanded the defendants for a new trial.

Owen J. Roberts, government counsel, announced later that he would ask the court to set a new trial for Fall and Sinclair for early in January. Roberts intended to confer with the court later in the day about a definite date.

One Juror Blamed

It was the loose tongue of E. J. Kidwell, juror No. 11, who called himself a "good yes and no man", and told of expecting an automobile "as long as a city block" out of Sinclair's acquittal, that brought the trial to a premature close in one instance.

The other was the seizing, in a raid on the Burns detective agency headquarters, of hour-by-hour reports on the activities of 11 of the 12 men and women in the jury box. These reports, according to the affidavits of the government, had gone into the hands of a Sinclair oil official.

"It is my belief and I aver," swore Assistant District Attorney Neil Burkinshaw, "that the real employer of said detectives is Harry F. Sinclair, a defendant in this case."

The court after calling attention to the affidavits filed yesterday dismissed the jury and then ordered the trial adjourned. In his decision Siddons blamed the "wide publicity given to the affidavits and the proceedings in chambers" as furnishing additional reasons for his action in declaring a mistrial.

Convenes Court.

Justice Siddons convened court at 10:10 calling in the jury. There was a craning of necks as Kidwell walked

Fall Asserts His Innocence

Not Guilty Of Any Wrongdoing In Connection With Mistrial

STANDS READY FOR NEW TRIAL

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Breaking his silence of months, Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, issued a statement today proclaiming his innocence of any wrongdoing in connection with the mistrial which Justice Siddons declared in the Teapot Dome oil case.

"Neither directly nor indirectly did anyone in my behalf have the jury under surveillance," said Fall. "Neither directly nor indirectly did I or anyone in my behalf have any communication of any kind with any member of the jury."

The ex-cabinet officer expressed "deep regret" at the sensational ending of the trial and declared he is ready for immediate retrial. His side of the Teapot story, Fall said, had never been told, and when it is told "a verdict of acquittal will be rendered."

chairman halted Frank G. Wisner, of Laurel, Miss., ex-president of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, in the midst of a discussion of this subject. Green asserted that "it is not necessary to go over this forty of fifty times."

The chairman's action followed criticism by individual Republican members of both Wisner and B. S. Duncan, economist for the Association of Railway Executives, both of whom advocated a corporation income tax cut from 13½ to 10 per cent.

"You realize you are proposing a reduction $90,000,000 more than the treasury says the surplus will bear?" asked Rep. Treadway (R) of Massachusetts. "That is unreasonable."

"Perhaps, in view of the fact that the treasury has under-estimated the surplus nearly a billion dollars in the last five years, it is not unreasonable at all," retorted Rep. Collier (D) of Mississippi.

FIVE HUNTERS FORFEIT LIVES ON FIRST DAY OF SEASON IN STATE

One Pittsburgher died next, and reports from Chester announced the death of one of its citizens at Fruitville. A Philadelphian died while hunting in nearby Maryland woods.

From the central and western part of the state came reports of accidents. Harrisburg announced three of its residents were injured. Pittsburgh accounted for an equal number. Gettysburg, Montrose and Lebanon, each reported an injury due to hunting accidents.

Pittsburgh started the fall crop of dead bodies with the report of the finding of two in the woods of Allegheny county. There, the body of a man apparently dead more than five weeks, was discovered. Another gruesome find was made by a party of hunters who stumbled onto the skeleton of a man.

These finds are expected to explain the mystery surrounding the disappearance of at least two men in that vicinity in recent months.

Warren county reported the first woman injured in hunting accidents, when Mrs. Louis Spencer, of Tidioute, was seriously injured from the effects of a gunshot wound, she was standing three feet from a woman companion, Mrs. Louis Newark, when her gun was accidentally discharged.

At Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 2.—One man was killed and one fatally injured in the first hunting accidents yesterday in Allegheny county. Harold Moorcraft, aged 27, was shot in the chest and fatally injured when he tripped over a wire fence. He died soon after in St. Joseph's hospital.

Henry Weiss, aged 29, was shot in the right shoulder and right foot by J. W. Chapman, a companion, when the latter fired at a rabbit in a thicket.

Two Are Injured

Clearfield, Pa., Nov. 2.—Two hunters were injured in the woods for the opening day of the small game season. Cecil Witherow, farmer of Knox township, had his left forearm shattered by a load of bird shot. It was amputated. The gun he was carrying went off as he was resting his arm on the muzzle of it, Dorsey Luzier, 18, had a finger blown while hunting rabbits. His gun was discharged as he was entering an auto.

Missed Rabbit, Hit Brother

Beaver Falls, Pa., Nov. 2.—John M. Herzog, 43, Freedom, is in the Rochester General hospital with a gunshot wound in the right leg, the first victim of the hunting season in Beaver County. Herzog and his brother, Thomas, were hunting rabbits in New Sewickley township when a rabbit suddenly jumped out. Thomas missed the rabbit, but struck his brother. Thomas carried the wounded man half a mile to the home of a farmer, where he summoned a physician.

Shot In Head

Punxsutawney, Pa., Nov. 2.—One accident marked the opening of the hunting season in this vicinity when L. E. Stiver of Big Run was shot in the side of the head with a charge of small shot by Roy Miller of the same town, near here. Both men were hunting squirrels and were lying down in the grass watching for them. Stiver lifted his head just as Miller fired, getting the contents of the load. His condition is not serious.

Shot By Own Guns

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 2.—Two casualties marked the opening of the hunting season in this section and both victims are hospital patients. The first accident reported was that of Michael Dobosh, 23, of Cairnbrook, who was accidentally shot in the right foot with his own shotgun. John L. Krouse, 20, of Bolivar, was brought to Memorial hospital here, suffering of severe gunshot wounds of the right hand. He was climbing over a fence when his gun accidentally discharged.

into the room. He took his seat in the jury box obviously nervous and ill at ease.

The defendants arrived early. Fall wore a black suit, a black bow tie and carried a worn black felt hat. He appeared to have aged greatly. Sinclair however, was in a jovial mood again. He wore a double breasted blue serge suit, a highly colored four-in-hand tie and tossed his new gray felt hat carelessly on a window sill in the characteristic manner that caused Juror Kidwell to term him a "Democratic man."

Siddons first spoke of the proceedings yesterday. Then he turned to Kidwell.

"There is one matter I want to call to the attention of Juror Kidwell," said the court. "I want to say to him that two affidavits were filed, one by J. Ray Akers and one by Don Key King, in which appear averments that allege certain statements were made by you. They are part of the record of this court. They are available for you to read at any time as they are a part of the record of this trial. I will not ask you to make any statement at this time."

Kidwell Gulps.

Kidwell gulped with great effort, while other members of the jury stared curiously at him. Every eye in the court room was on the unfortunate juror. His face grew red and he grasped the arms of his chair.

The court then touched upon the action of the attorneys in the secret session yesterday in agreeing that the trial should end as a result of the affidavits.

The court then turned again to the jury and said: "I shall have to dismiss the jury and I do so. You are dismissed from further service on the present panel."

Thus the first trial of Fall and Sinclair passed into history.

Neither Fall nor Sinclair would comment on the charge of jury tampering nor on the action of the court in ending the trial. The juror, Kidwell, however, was just as reticent at first but later denied the most serious charges.

I never said that about the car or that Sinclair was a good fellow said Kidwell. And I never said anything about an offer being made me. I did talk to Akers and King but I refused to talk about the case. They tried to get me drunk. I have known Akers for three years but I don't know why he tried to get me in bad, that's all I have got to say.

Should Be Cited.

Government counsel, particularly Roberts were obviously annoyed because Justice Siddons failed to cite Kidwell for contempt of court.

"I never saw a clearer case," he said, "and I think the justice should have cited him then and there."

Immediately following the departure of the judge from the court, Conrad J. Herzog, auto sales manager and Juror No. 5, stepped from the box and walked over to Roberts.

"Mr. Roberts," he said, "some of my fellow jurors desire me to speak to you. We regret this situation exceedingly and we feel that unfairly we have been placed under a cloud in a manner over which we had no control."

"Mr. Herzog," replied Roberts, "may I assure you that the government regards 10 of the 12 jurors as being of the very highest type. We regret exceedingly this unfortunate occurrence, but it could not be helped. You know yourself that had you suddenly became aware you were under constant surveillance, you immediately would have thought the United States government didn't trust you, and it would have reacted in your mind against us.

"I might add the government hasn't spent a plugged nickel in such work. "I thank you and I am sorry."

Decline To Comment.

The defense attorneys declined to comment in the court room.

"Our position is plainly stated in the record of the session in Justice Siddons chambers", said Martin W. Littleton, chief of Sinclair's counsel. "We favored the dismissal of the jury in the view of the wide publicity given these charges."

Other members of the jury declared Kidwell had made no effort to influence them while they were confined in the jury room. They said that Kidwell hadn't even taken part in their deliberations.

Mrs. Fall, wife of the defendant, and their two daughters were here in the court room as the mistrial was ordered. She placed a hand on her husband's arm and whispered in his ear. Fall rose slowly, picked up his old black hat and started away. Mrs. Fall took his arm.

"Have you anything to say," he was asked.

"No, not now," said Fall in low tones, while Mrs. Fall merely nodded.

It appeared that Fall did not look on the court's action as a victory. His attitude seemed to indicate he felt the ordeal of appearing before the bar of justice only had been postponed.

Sinclair presented a sharp contrast. While he would not speak for publication, he smiled broadly and talked lightly to acquaintances in the court room. He left the building as jauntily as ever.

when she opened the door it was impossible to see in the garage on account of the smoke. The smoke and fumes almost overcome Mrs. Linsley.

She called Harry McCaskey, a neighbor, who on entering the place found Mr. Boyd in the front seat of his car and the engine going. The place had been closed up and the accumulation of smoke and fumes are believed to have been the cause of death.

The body had been removed to the open by the time the officers arrived. This enabled them to use the pulmotor effectively.

Coroner J. P. Caldwell was notified and is making an investigation of the case in an effort to determine just how Mr. Boyd was overcome.

Harry Raub Boyd, was born at Oxford, Pa., June 14, 1866, the son of John and Mary Smith Boyd. He was 61 years of age. He had been a resident of this city for many years and had conducted a mercantile establishment much of the time.

He leaves one daughter Mrs. George E Fout of Youngstown, O., and three sisters Mrs. A. H. Monks, Atlantic City, Mrs. David Moore, Clayton, N. J., and and Mrs. William Woods, Philadelphia, Pa.

School Board Closes Schools In Order That Teachers And Students May Hunt

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Nov. 2.—Johnsonburg, 16 miles from here, attaches a real educational value to hunting, so much in fact that the committee on resolutions at a school board meeting there today recommended closing of the high school during the big game hunting season "so that the teachers as well as the older children may study nature first handed and enjoy the hunt with their elders."

The school days are to be made up without extra expense by teachers at the end of the school year.

Johnsonburg has a population of 5400.

Urges Refusal Of Giving Lifts To School Boys

The appeal of childen asking for a ride often terminates in the most terrible of automobile accidents, declares Bernard Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor Club.

Children seeking lifts are especially hard to resist, he states, but safety demands that the motorist be firm in his refusal to accede to it.

"It is the part of the motorist to drive carefully when passing a school zone," he goes on. "But the man must refuse the children who seek rides. Drivers should be reminded that they are responsible in case of accidents involving their youthful companions. Parents and teachers should do all in their power to discourage this habit, which is so easily developed.

"The school is the proper place where safety should be taught and this is doubly important in view of the approach of winter, with its slippery, icy streets."

day. The investigation will deal not only with the charges that Kidwell expressed a bias in favor of Harry F. Sinclair, the oil magnate, but also into charges that an army of Burns detectives had shadowed members of the jury for many days.

The investigation before the grand jury was being conducted by Neil Burkinshaw, an assistant United States attorney.

Owen J. Roberts, chief federal counsel in the oil scandal prosecutions, gave Burkinshaw full authority to make a sweeping investigation of the tampering charges with a view to returning indictments, and the young assistant attorney is issuing subpoenaes for witnesses from as far away as Chicago and New York.

Conrad J. Herzog, foreman of the dismissed jury, asked to be heard. He feels that he and certain of his fellow jurors, through circumstances over which they had no control, have been placed under a cloud.

Kidwell, the single juror against whom charges were made, after leaving court this morning, was brought back by two deputy marshals to appear before the grand jury.

Others involved in the investigation are Charles G. Ruddy, a manager for the Burns detective agency, and the 15 operatives who are charged in government affidavits with having shadowed 11 of the 12 jurors every minute since the inception of the trial two and a half weeks ago.

Time To Prepare Drives For Winter

Cinder and crushed stone driveways should come in for the motorists consideration at this time of year if he wishes to escape the harrowing experience of being bogged hopelessly in his own back yard when the rains of the late fall and the early winter come. This is the warning that is sounded by Bernard Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor club, who declares that the season is at hand when the motor club's emergency service is called upon to rescue many car owners from just this predicament.

Scores of cinder and crushed stone driveways, as well as those that are left au natural, become veritable swamps at this time of year, says Mr. Hanlon.

"The expense of resurfacing this type of private roadway is not great in the majority of cases, but the motorists fail to act because they are not conscious of a need for action until the time is here. But the surfacing of drives saves a great deal of trouble and annoyance and frees winter driving of one of its most irritating aspects."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Fall-Sinclair mistrial cost the government and the defense nearly three quarters of a million dollars, it was estimated here today by lawyers. This tremendous burden was believed to include a half million dollar expenditure by the defense, with a quarter million expense to the government.

The estimates follow:

$500,000 by the defense.

$60,000 by the special government counsel out of public funds.

$50,000 by Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts out of their own pockets to be later reimbursed by congress.

$10,000 by United States marshal in jury and witness fees.

$15,000 for Justice Frederick L. Siddons and the court expenses.

$100,000 estimated portion of fees for Roberts and Pomerene and their staffs.

Some are born rich and some acquire riches and some are just Republicans as a matter of principle.

"HOW INNOCENT a drug can be—and how helpful! I'm done with purgatives that leave even a child's system so acid you can detect it in the perspiration. A little cascara is a perfect sweetener, and my boy and I both love the candy—

CASCARETS

Easy to Keep the System Sweet at Any Age

Many people who never have to take a laxative eat a candy cascaret now and then. Do you know why?

They have found that cascara sweetens the whole system—brings an immaculacy of person that means everything. It prevents bodily chemistry from ever making one unconsciously offensive to others. And what a perfect regulator of the bowels!

Salts affect the lining of the bowels. Mineral oils leave a coating that the blood must carry off through the pores. How much better to cascarize the system, and cause the bowels to expel everything by normal muscular contraction! To say nothing of the cleaner, sweeter condition that lasts for days—a wholesome condition that makes the use of deodorants quite unnecessary in January or July! Men and women whose years have brought on sluggishness often find that a cascaret only once a week is all the tonic they needed.

Cascara is splendid for children, too, and they love the taste of this candy laxative which every drugstore has for 10c and 25c.

WOMEN APPROACHING MIDDLE AGE

Pass Through This Trying Period in Good Condition by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MRS. HARVEY TUCKER
R. R. 9, SHELBYVILLE, IND.

"Grow old along with me, The best is yet to be"

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women of middle age, say they owe their vigor and health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Those who have learned through their own experience the merit of this dependable medicine are enthusiastic in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

"I had been in bad condition for three months. I could not do my work. One day I read what your medicine had done and just had a feeling that it would help me, so I sent and got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had only taken half a bottle when I got up and started to do my work. It gave me an appetite, and helped me wonderfully. I can not praise this medicine highly enough. I surely will advise all women and girls to take it, and they don't have to use rouge to look healthy. My two daughters are taking it now and one is also using the Sanative Wash. I am willing to have you use this testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the medicine."—Mrs. Harvey Tucker, R. R. No. 9, Shelbyville, Indiana.

"I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the little books you give away and began to take the medicine. After the first few bottles I began to feel better and could eat better and had fewer headaches. I feel like a different person. At anytime that I don't feel good I take the Vegetable Compound again, as I always keep a bottle on hand. You may use this letter for every word is true. I will answer any letters sent to me."—Mrs. Jennie Bollerman, 611-11th St., Union City, N. J.

CLOUDY TEETH?

This New Way Does Wonders Quickly. Noted Dentists Urge It. Accept 10-Day Tube Free!

TEETH seldom are naturally "off color." Most often they're merely coated with a film that forms on teeth and which absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. By clearing it off, one's whole appearance may be changed.

Old-type dentifrices failed to remove that film successfully. That's why brushing has failed you. Now leading dentists urge the special film-removing dentifrice, Pepsodent, for this purpose.

Results are quick and surprising. Film coats go. Teeth whiten; sparkle like jewels. Bacteria that thrive in film are combated; tooth decay, gum troubles and pyorrhea thus scientifically fought.

All druggists sell Pepsodent in large tubes. Or send coupon for test free. Do this now.

THE NEW GIANT

THE growth of the American railroads between 1875 and 1900 was unprecedented either in business, commerce or industry. It was the sensation of the era. And then between 1900 and 1920 the automobile industry grew to such magnitude as to even overshadow the phenomenal expansion of the railroads. This was a new achievement and established the American reputation for doing things on a big scale.

But even while the automobile industry was experiencing its most rapid growth there was another industry and business rising in power. This was the moving picture with billions invested in producing companies, distributors and exhibitors. The country's reputation for doing things on a big scale increased, but the world was convinced that the new achievement could not be equalled. And then the radio receiving set for the home was perfected and another super-industry sprang up almost over night.

There is now in process of development an industry of national scope which within a few years will surpass in magnitude any of these former achievements of American ingenuity and enterprise. This new attraction for American capital is the production of electric power. This industry now doubles itself every five years. It is now arriving at a stage which is known as giant power and super-power.

Those who are studying the industry picture one system carrying an unlimited supply of cheap power into every populated section of the United States.

ADVERTISING HELPS TO CREATE PROSPERITY

ONE of the speakers at an important convention held in Atlantic City made the statement that advertising had been the greatest single factor in making the United States prosperous during the past twelve years.

This is a sweeping statement, but even if we concede that it has been only one of the important factors the value of intelligent publicity must become apparent to all.

H. D. Crippen of New York, who made the claim, said that the Liberty Loan bonds floated during the war brought into circulation billions of America's latent wealth, and that it has been advertising that has kept it in use ever since. There is much truth in this and it is confirmed by the wonderful increase in advertising that has taken place during the past decade. A drop of ink not only makes millions think, but it also induces them to buy, and the more goods manufactured and sold the more prosperity we shall naturally have in this country.

BEAUTIFYING THE CAPITAL

WHEN Major L'Enfant laid out the original plans for the City of Washington during the administration of George Washington as president he was criticized for looking what was then thought far beyond the city's needs for two centuries. It has since been demonstrated that even Major L'Enfant underestimated the future growth of the capital.

Because the planner of the city was too conservative and because recent development of the capital city has not been held rigidly to L'Enfant's plan the beauty and symmetry of the original plan has been marred. Knowing this will there be some who will criticize the American Institute of Architects and the American Civic Association in looking ahead to the year 2000 in their plans and hopes for the beautification of the nation's capital.

The American people take as much pride in the buildings, streets, parks and monuments of their federal city as the Germans shower on their Berlin, the British on their London, the French upon their Paris and the Italians upon their Rome. It is the ambition of every American that the city of Washington become the world's most beautiful city. It should be if for no other reason than the delighting of the many thousands of people who make pilgrimages to it each year. It will not be if the government preserves the crude temporary war buildings or erects more of them, if real estate promoters are permitted to lay out new streets without thought of conforming to the L'Enfant plan and if the city is permitted to develop into an industrial center.

HEROES OF TODAY

THE education of a boy is not merely a matter of schooling and discipline. The boy himself does more than his teachers to lay the deeper foundations of his life in the hours he spends with his heroes, who teach him ideals and ambitions and write their message deep in his heart. These heroes, mythical and shadowy though they be, have power over him and gain his love and confidence, and the bent and fiber of his character will inevitably reflect their inspiration.

It used to be that knights of old or spectacular heroes of pioneer days were the boon companions of the youthful spirit. But the daily newspaper in every household has wrought its miracle even with the boy. His heroes today are on the front pages of the paper; they are athletes, soldiers and sailors, aviators and explorers, and men everywhere who give their strength or hazard their lives in some deed of unselfishness and sacrifice.

Boy nature demands heroes, and the boy's heroes today are of his own generation and very much alive in the world with him. He may see them, hear their voices and follow their story from day to day. The picture of Lindbergh hangs on the wall of countless boys' bedrooms; they can read the book he has written and catch a glimpse of him as he rides his swift steed above the cities of America. The wise parent and teacher will encourage such hero worship, so that the torch of high empire may one day pass to hands that are ready for it.

What you think of yourself doesn't count until you prove it.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 4:56. Sun rises tomorrow 6:32.

If there is such a thing as chin music the double chin must be a duet.

The high price of apples is going to keep some people from supporting Apple Week very enthusiastically.

It is so they will be sure of their ground that men file deeds in the register's office.

The New York Bible Society has just placed an order for one million Bibles to be printed in 22 languages. The society now has Bibles in 67 languages, including raised type for the blind. The Good Book still outsells all other kinds of books in all languages.

It is wicked for a lot of people to do the things they do unless we happen to be invited.

Someone has said that the American people are more interested in earning a living, or in golf, cars, movies, homes, bridge, poker or other interests than they are between the distinctions between political parties. And just for that very indifference this country gets the worst of it right along.

The false face does not disguise some people at all.

There are people who confine all their civic activities to electing some candidate to public office. They never do anything else in a civic way and very often the city would be better off if they would confine their activities to doing nothing at all. Voters should be careful as to what they believe in the way of election propaganda. The bird that spouts the stuff is often a good thing to go by—or rather, not to go by. New Castle has lost millions of dollars because people have listened to advisors who were not good advisors.

The reason that love is blind is because it turns out the floor lamp in the living room.

Often the same fellow who goes up a ladder hand-over-hand comes down head-over-heels.

The leader of the vice crusade in Pittsburgh has been missing for several days. Being the leader of an anti-vice crusade in Pittsburgh would be some job, in our estimation. It may be hard to tell where the crusader will be found—in fact, the chances are when he is found he will be unable to tell what happened to him. Pittsburgh is a bad place for a crusader who worked for decency.

You can't tell the man who dresses for dinner at home by the way he grabs a ham sandwich in the restaurant.

Women guests invited to the wedding of a princes in Paris have been ordered to appear in long skirts. In Paris it is also stated that short skirts may be all right for street and sport wear, but long skirts are the right thing for evening. America is still to be heard from on that matter, is our guess.

The peacock has a prettier tail than the rabbit, but it hasn't a left hind foot.

After a murderer in Havanna was thought to have been executed, those who were leaving the death house thought they saw the body moving, so it was put back into the garrot and executed again. Heinz preserve us! Also help!

Neighbors always will be objectionable to the small boy.

Bobbed hair has done away with the incriminating evidence when the wife finds one on the coat lapel.

If Mayor Dunlap asks for some more policemen they should be given to him. He knows more about whether more policemen are needed than someone who might fear his taxes would be raised a mill or two. Policemen are about the best investment a city can make in spite of the fact that some people are always afraid of policemen—and they usually know why.

There are women who say that if they had married the first man that attracted them they would have made the mistake of their lives. After seeing what some of them drew we wonder what they think after they have gone and done it.

A he-man is one who bravely tells his wife the truth, let the dishes fall where they may.

Already we are told to send our Christmas stuff early if it goes to foreign countries. Well, like the rest of them, we will think it over.

Some wise chap said that if all the waiters in a hotel were placed end to end they would reach to —— for a tip.

ADVERTISING, THE BUILDER

Manufacturers and merchandise face big problems in reaching and teaching the public. By advertising they solve their problems.

A few years ago one saw the first tractors in the fields. At first tractors moved slowly. Farmers are by nature conservative.

It was the job of the advertiser to show the farmer that he undertook the upkeep of a horse for the use of on ehind leg. In the field he wanted the pulling power of the horse. The horse, after all, is limited in capacity. He finally exerts his pull with one hind leg and one off the ground. And the horse calls for considerable upkeep.

Advertising has told the story. Tractors plow acres in the hours in which the horses plow only a little plot.

Advertising hasn't simply told about business. Advertising has made business. And business has made the average American man and woman comfortable.

More than 1,500 millions of dollars are spent in a year in newspaper and allied advertising.

Human progress comes largely through the creation of wants that can be intelligently satisfied.

Advertising is a prime builder of our amazing industrial civilization.

There is a brighter side to everything, even the lethargy of our citizenship, and yesterday we got rid of a man who had started in to tell us exactly how to vote by fixing him with our glittering eye and inquiring in our stern way: Did you register?

The marriage ceremony needs one more question: will you love her when she's fat?

The new army ration list includes peanut butter. This will be served on occasions when it is thought desirable to put the soldiers in a fighting mood. Why not feed a little of it to prize fighters before they enter the ring?

It is claimed there is not a cook in all of Europe who can cook an order of ham and eggs the good old American way. With the number of people going to Europe each year it looks as though American cooks might find lucrative employment by going across and getting jobs at the big hotels.

A soda clerk in Chicago shot and killed the robber who tried to rob him the second time. It seems to us that a few such soda clerks, judiciously used, might restore law and order to the Illinois metropolis.

The primrose path invariably leads to a briar patch. Every observing person has noticed that.

Grover Cleveland Bergdoll is to be provided with a passport to the United States. This is generous of the Government when it is remembered that he once refused a free trip to France.

America is a place where a man can get along pretty good in the oil business if he's patriotic enough.

We know what the new Ford is going to be. A man who visited Detroit recently told us. It is to be a Rolls-Royce, the only difference being that it will either fold, pack or squeeze into a place that no Rolls can get into.

There is no true contentment but in agreeable work.

Germany never asks if Hindenburg is too old to be President. A nation accustomed to value every resource does not neglect the wisdom that only experience can bring.

Turkey will be dear this fall. So will ham and eggs. So will pork and beans. Lawrence county produces some fine turkeys but they are pretty good ones by the time they reach the consumer. It has become customary to read the Thanksgiving proclamation without reference to the market reports. We're thankful that the Thanksgiving proclamation does not require us to buy a turkey.

Fall and Sinclair may be innocent as they claim, but everyone must remember that the Government got its oil land back.

Hunting season is now open but with the extremely mild weather the hunters are not very enthusiastic. The birds and the little game animals will have a nice time winking at the hunters as they plod along through the woods.

THE WORKING GIRL

God bless the girl who works, I say
Who works and toils to earn her pay,
She is the subject of my lay.
She may not paint or have much style;
She's mostly free from sin or guile;
But I do love to see her smile.

She loves her parents and her work;
She pulls her load and does not shirk—
The man harms her deserves the dark.
She may not smoke or do the glide,
Be learned or puffed up with pride;
But she deserves to be a bride.

She gives, for all she has, pro quo;
She, too, both loves and dreams, altho
She does not live alone for show.
With Adam's sons her tribes increase;
May all her cares and worries cease,
And love and labor bring her peace.

Christ saves her from grief's poignant knife;
Her labor dignifies her life.
Grant her to be a good man's wife.
May she be pure as flawless pearl—
My pray'r—amid life's busy whirl!—
Dear God, is, help the working girl.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago might have a more enthusiastic job on his hands if he would start to drive all the law-breakers out of his city instead of fiddling around with a few innocent history books. He is practically inviting the people to violate the 18th Amendment but he sure does have a pick at poor old King George.

One reason why so many women hate the radio is because they hate to listen without getting a chance to do some talking.

Santa's on the wire,
My honey's hopes are higher;
But my Wallet is flatter than a sunken tire.
How'm I going to get,
Things for my sweet li'l pet,
When money doesn't rhyme with "Please remit?"

Why Pick on Goats?
Swords and Pens.
Lo! The Fight King.
An Unreal World.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Hindus think it an outrageous sin to kill a cow. Mohammedans think it their duty to sacrifice cows as part of their religion.

Mohammedans think it outrageous to have processions with music. Mohammed didn't approve of music. Hindus must have music in their religious processions. Their gods want music.

So Hindus and the Mussulman compromise. Moslems can kill cows at any time they choose, but not in public places, and Hindus can have religious processions with music banging. England kills cows, enjoys music and rules India easily.

Curiously enough Hindus on certain occasions sacrifice, with cruel butchering, hundreds of goats in religious rites, while they allow miserable cows to die of hunger and disease because it is a sin to kill them. Why pick on the goats?

The death of Maximilian Harden reminds you that the pen is much mightier than the sword, although you hardly believe it, when swords happen to be busy.

The kaiser's sword is rust and dust, and he is nothing. Maximilian Harden's name stands out as that of a fearless, useful critic.

Compare the swords and the pen of Voltaire with the sword of Louis XIV, his contemporary; the sword of Frederick the Great with the pen of Gothe, Schiller or Heine; the sword of any general in our Civil war with the pen of Lincoln.

The pen is mighty because it represents the BRAIN, the sword is weak because it represents the brute.

James J. Tunney, heavyweight champion, is included in a millionaire committee organized for philanthropy as follows: Charles M. Schwab, steel king; John D. Ryan, copper king; Charles A. Whelen, tobacco king; Otto H. Kahn, money king. Mr. Tunney is the FIGHT KING and behaves as such.

He is not only on a committee with big millionaires, but his lawyers are Chadbourne, Stanchfield & Levy, who help millionaires to keep out of trouble and assure Tunney that they will make it harder for anybody to get his money than to take away his championship.

We live in a half unreal world. An unfortunate man repairing an electric light sign 60 feet in the air lost his foothold on a ladder, swung around clinging desperately with his hands. A crowd said, "It's a funny stunt, probably advertising some movie," and watched the "stunt" until the man fell.

This is a gambling world, as well as an unreal world. In New York, as an example, and in other places, those that might be doing something worth while, turning their time and effort to profit, can bet on horse racing in the afternoon, stocks in the morning, greyhounds and cards at night.

Mr. Mellon says he can only afford to cut taxes $225,000,000 just now. Those that have income tax to pay will admit that a $225,000,000 cut is better than "being hit on the head with a sharp stone."

King Alfonso of Spain wants a tunnel under the Straits of Gibraltar, connecting Africa and Spain. England and France NEED a tunnel under the English channel connecting those two countries, but the English conservatives are afraid to risk it.

France would never bother invading England with men, when her airplanes now enable her to annihilate every English city with ease, in one day.

It is suggested that the dirigible Los Angeles is ready to be scrapped. Germany says a good Zeppelin like the Los Angeles should last five years.

Why doesn't our government experiment with a modest-sized dirigible gas bag made of metal, duralumin, a mixture of aluminum, steel, copper. It would weigh less than a gas bag, last much longer and lightning wouldn't strike it. This country is rich enough to make some experiments instead of merely depending on foreigners and private initiative.

Russia says she can now afford to reduce armaments, and will cooperate with the League of Nations. That, if sincere, is good news for western Europe. The power of Russia with Asia back of her, and Germany deprived of her big army, is Europe's nightmare.

Bible Thought For Today

A GREAT DELIVERANCE:—For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears and my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. Psalm 116: 8, 9.

PRAYER:—O Lord may we so live with Thee as to prove the greatness of Thy deliverance.

Green has a quieting effect, the specialists say. You can demonstrate this by trying a little long green on your wife.

BLINDERS

Sir Oliver Lodge the other day said: "Science pursues a narrow road in search of truth, looking neither to the right nor the left. Well, it will soon have to take its blinkers off. The roads are not the whole universe. There is a good deal of ground in between. It looks at present like a jungle and thicket — uncivilized. Well, we will have to civilize it."

The fault to which Sir Oliver refers is not confined to scientists, although it is common among them. A man may look so intently at that thing upon which his attention is fixed that he fails to see important things about him to which he gives no heed.

Some of the most important things of life come unexpectedly. Some of our most vital events are not those toward which we labored.

A man should keep his eyes and be able to see things "out of the tail of his eye."

The best things that ever happened to us have not been those things that we so arduously searched for, but things which have bumped into us unexpectedly.

It is all right to pursue one subject with concentration, but we should not concentrate so much that we do not see other things.

Many a man has been so busy with his trade or calling that he has failed to recognize opportunities that thrust themselves upon him.

Many a religionist has been so occupied with his faith that he has taken in none of the indubitable facts that surround him.

So, also, some scientists pursue their duty so fixedly that they fail to see the spiritual realities that occur about them.

A concentrated mind is a good thing, but it should also be an alert mind. We should press forward toward the goal in view, but we should be ready to jump at prizes that lie by the roadside.

There is such a thing as too much concentration.

Men centering all their attentions upon the pursuit of wealth do not see the little opportunities for happiness that lie along their path day by day. Women are so intent upon gaining some goal which they think important that they miss other blessings which they might have by the way for the taking.

Let us devote all our attention to our business in hand, but let us remember that there are other things in this world than the thing upon which we have set our heart and that sometimes these other things are quite as important as our chosen object.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SPEED NOT EVERYTHING.

Arthur Brisbane has a lot to say about airplanes, but I see he allows his friend Will Rogers to do the travelling in airplanes. Arthur trots back and forth between the Atlantic and Pacific about once a month, but always on a railroad train, safe and sound in a Pullman drawing room, with a secretary at his elbow to record all of the clever ideas expressed in his column "Today". I have yet to see where the great columnist has made a single trip from coast to coast in an airplane.

This is an age of Speed. The citizen desires the fastest, strongest automobile with which to burn up the road. He wants an airplane to carry his mail and express, and he has a sneaking idea he'd like to own and drive one himself, and pursue his mania for speed where there are no traffic officers. Even our good friend Sam Bell, although past 85 years, says that he expects to return to New Castle on his next trip by airship.

It remains true, however, that men and women still like leisurely progress through the world. They are very happy to take a slow ship with beautiful staterooms, and splendid cooks on their trips abroad. Some there are who in their transcontinental trips, love to stop here and there, and absorb for a moment the wonders of America. There is a pleasure in idly gazing out of a car window upon the passing scenery which no airplane passenger is able to have, or will be able to have at any time. All the world—the valleys, cities, and plains—looks alike in the day time to the airplane passengers. It is a dead level projection of the earth's surface which he observes beneath him.

Speed is not everything in this world. It may spell large figures with dollar signs prefixed thereto in the World of Business. Not so in the World of Pleasure. Dollars are not everything. Often the speeder, either on land, water, or air comes to grief. A dead man can not enjoy dollars. It has been said more than once, "Much haste, less speed."

There is no necessity in worrying about the solution of air traffic. The young inventive genius of the world will eventually solve the problems. The time will come when the traveller may get some pleasure other than the pleasure of Speed from the navigation of the air, but the fact remains that the most of us get more pleasure out of quiet orderly travel than do the few out of a steamship trip to Europe in four days, an airplane trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific in twenty four hours, a ride in an automobile at 70 miles an hour, an 18 hour railroad trip between New York and Chicago.

SUBMISSIVE

Although I may think that such things shouldn't be
I have to like skirts that are cut to the knee.

It's not mine to say what a woman should wear,
I have to like girls who have barbered their hair.

It may be all wrong that they powder and paint,
But my women refuse to be frumpy and quaint.

When it comes to controlling the fads as they are
I long ago learned I don't get very far.

I might preach against fashion the rest of my life
But I'd never change either my daughter or wife.

So whatever they wear, to submit is my lot,
For they'll follow the style, let me like it or not.

C. B. D. CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

IN NEW YORK

Commuters have many grievances. Riding daily on the railroads from the suburbs to the city and return, they sometimes feel that they are abused. Not infrequently, on the line I patronize between Yonkers and the Grand Central Terminal, somebody refuses to pay his fare unless a seat is provided for him.

Recently I had a hectic experience with the New York Central. It seems extremely amusing in retrospect, but I was considerably heated about it at the time.

When you buy a 50-ride family ticket you must register the names of all the members of your household entitled to use the ticket. Opposite the name of each you state the relationship of the person to the ticketholder.

At the suburban station I laid out my money and filled out the blanks.

"You must put Mrs. before your wife's name," said the woman station agent.

"No. I have given her first name, and added that she is my wife. That is all that is necessary. Only widows use Mrs. before their first names."

"Then I cannot sell you a ticket."

And she was adamant. I adjourned the argument to Grand Central Terminal, where I could fight it out with men.

The ticket seller at Grand Central said: "You must put Mrs. before your wife's name, Mr. before your own name, and Miss before the name of each of your daughters."

"I will not do it," I replied. "Mr. is a title of courtesy, which I do not use in my signature. My daughters are mere infants, and are not to be styled Miss for at least 10 years yet. My wife does not use Mrs. before her first name, because she is not a widow. Give me a ticket."

The battle was on. I held my ground and that ticket window for two hours, while 10 clerks, chief clerks, ticket agents and poo-bahs consulted and proclaimed. I threatened to form an association of commuters with the sole purpose of doing away with such nonsense as making people write their names and those of their wives and children erroneously.

Finally there came an order from the general passenger agent: "Sell him a ticket."

And the 10 functionaries stood silent and sad while I signed my name and the names of my wife and children correctly. It had been something like an earthquake to these faithful guardians of silly rules.

HOW TO FIGHT EXCESS FAT

There are hard ways, like starvation, but fewer and fewer employ them. There is a pleasant way, modern and scientific, which combats the cause. A vast number of people now use it. And the slender figures now seen everywhere are largely due to that.

That method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And everybody, in almost every circle, sees the change. New beauty, new health, new vitality.

Each box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. So users have no fear of harm. Learn the facts about Marmola, because of the good it has done. Ask your druggist—now—for a $1 box with the book. Then decide.

Wandering Minstrels At The Castleton

Room reservations have been made at The Castleton for the Wandering Minstrels, a troupe who broadcasts from WTAM, Cleveland, on Friday nights of each week.

These minstrels will be in New Castle to play at the Radio Show in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Arrangements have been made to have these artists entertain in the main dining room of The Castleton this evening from six to seven.

A writer suggests 13 ways for a wife to lose her husband, but she might succeed, we suspect, without having to avail herself of all of them.

"A Fixture in My Make-Up Box!"

Beautiful Thelda Kenvin, talented Paramount Junior Star, is glad to tell other women why she uses Black and White Cleansing Cream.

"As one in the profession who requires unusually heavy make-up," says Miss Kenvin, "I found that Black and White Cleansing Cream effectively removes grease, paint and cosmetics, leaving the skin soft, clear and refreshed. After one trial, this delightful cream became a fixture in my make-up box."

It will only require a trial to convince you, too, of the beneficial and beautifying effects of Black and White Cleansing Cream. This soft light cream quickly melts into clogged pores, frees them of excess grease, dust and impurities and leaves the skin smooth, fresh and clean.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—In the midst of pastel pinks and blues, nainsooks and flannels, perambulators and cribs in Best's Liliputian Bazaar, a middle-aged man, perhaps a proud grandfather who had just purchased a christening robe or a silver rattle, walked stealthily up to the drinking fount, drew a lily cup full of water and calmly poured in three fingers of whiskey from a pocket flask. A bracer is a bracer, wherever taken or how.

The recent craze for sunlight as a cure for human ills seems to have spread even to the tenements, for I observed, from a window of a Westchester train, many infants, clothed only in diapers, exposed to the sun on tenement fire escapes. The young sun bathers were being carefully watched by women at the windows. This speaks well for the work of neighborhood clinics and it seems to me a likely supposition that many of these same babies will be given cod liver oil regularly this winter.

And it is interesting, in connection with these same tenements to note the numerous window boxes of flowers. Geraniums, nasturtiums, ivy, parsley and even tomato plants flourish in ten pounds of soil in the densest parts of the city. Even tomato plants? More; I have seen a castor oil plant growing in one of these miniature tenement gardens.

A friend reports (and I am certain of its veracity) that he and his wife decided to celebrate their wedding anniversary by going to the "Follies". The young man is not overly prosperous and seats for this show meant a considerable outlay to him. To me it seems that the anniversary was marked by two favorable omens: he himself recounts only one. It appears that they went to the box office at 7:30 at night and actually got seats in the fifth row for the performance. To the young bridegroom this was no cause for amazement.

But he tells with wonder of the incident that followed. Having an hour to kill before theatre time, they walked east on Forty-second street up Fifth avenue to Fifty-ninth street and west to Broadway, by which street they returned to the theatre. As they neared the theatre the young man reached in his pocket for the tickets—and found nothing. The couple were near collapse, when two men came up behind. Said one of them: "These are your tickets, I believe. You dropped them down aways on Broadway." And he handed the amazed bridegroom the pasteboards.

A New York butcher became afflicted with a common phobia—that which prompts its owner to kill with a knife. Incidentally, this mental disorder has been the subject of a good deal of discussion and study by psycho-analists. Anyway, this butcher succumbed to his ailment, and killed a woman. When he was told by police that he was charged with murder and would probably "burn" in the chair, he said: "Well, better men than I have died. Look at Valentino!"

BUSINESS BETTER

Much conversation about improved conditions or depressing conditions in business is just conversation and nothing else. It is long distance guess work. When the United States employment service issues a bulletin the information can be taken as accurate. A special survey by that department shows conditions promising. An increase of employment is apparently on the way. The difference between business in Europe and business in America is largely a difference between the number of unemployed.

WORKING QUIETLY

A United States ship will leave soon on a three-year voyage. It will carry Carnegie Institute scientists and it is expected to travel about 110,000 miles. This voyage will take the ship into all the oceans. Scientists aboard will study the electrical prosperities of the sea and air, ocean currents and atmospheric phenomena. Almost as soon as it sails this ship will be forgotten. But there will be a few men, away by themselves, cut off from their homes, working quietly to increase mankind's knowledge of his mysterious world. The effort ought to be appreciated by the rest of us.

HOPEFUL

A new serum has been developed which it is hoped and believed will be a curb for infantile paralysis. The danger is that the public will be fooled into a sense of quick security before the value of the new discovery is established. The scientific world moves slowly on its path. And its movement is dependable.

A USE FOR THE MIND

There is a certain use to which we might put the mind more often. We might use our minds to convince ourselves of our well-being instead of using our minds so much of the time to convince ourselves that we are in an unfortunate state. We get the idea that we are very tired—not because we are really worn out, but because we convince ourselves that we are. We rather like the martyrdom of weariness. In the minds we decide we are tired. Another attitude might convince us that we are still pretty fresh.

Ankle Doctor Yields To Arm Specialist

(International News Service)

LONDON Nov. 2—For years women have flocked to their favorite beauty specialist to have their ankles massaged, creamed and drilled into the approved slender lines of grace and beauty.

Now the ankle specialist is yielding his place to the arm adept who is called on to give shapeliness and balanced proportions to the arms which it is now recognized can make or mar the smart appearance of the women who keep pace with fashion dictates.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

The cart before the horse

To choose a new car simply on the basis of the largest allowance for your present car is like putting the cart before the horse.

For the real measure of a trade-in transaction is how much new car value you get for your present car, plus the balance that you pay in cash.

You trade-in your present car for a new car most wisely when you are guided by these facts:

1. Your present car has only one fundamental basis of value: that is what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
2. Your present car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
3. The largest allowance offered is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not. An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

From the car-buyer's standpoint, a trade-in transaction is a purchase, not a sale. So first judge the value of a new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your present car.

ROOM FOR MORE PUPILS IN NIGHT SCHOOL CLASSES

There is still room for a few more pupils in the night Americanization classes which are being conducted in the Lincoln-Garfield school on the South Side, states Emma B. Moore, who is in charge of the International Institute for Foreign Women.

Many pupils have already registered, and classes were started last week. It is the hope of the women at the institute that the attendance at this year's classes will break all preceding records.

Not so much the first cost as the accessories dent the pocketbook.

MOTHER

A Cross, Sick Child is Constipated! Look at Tongue

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless, "fruity laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

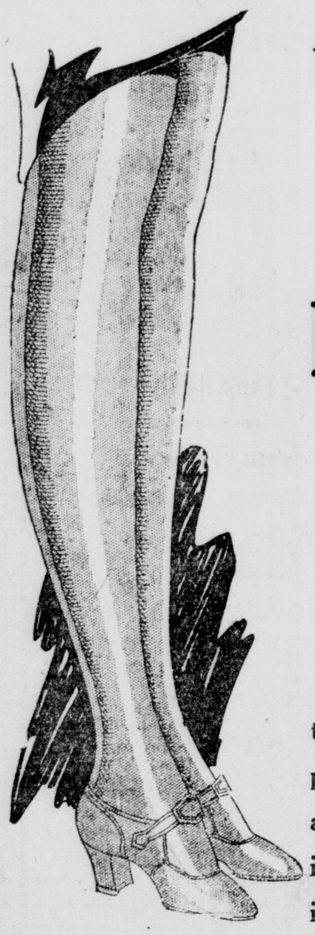

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Japanese Ship With Entire Crew Dead, Is Towed To Coast Port

Ship Marbaret Dollar Finds Ship In Pacific With Several Dead Bodies

Evidences Of Cannibalism Aboard Craft; Two Bodies Found Frozen At Tiller

(International News Service)

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 2.—Many are the strange craft that have touched at this port, and many are the strange tales that have been recounted by their imaginative crews, but all of these eerie tales of the sea were eclipsed today with the arrival here of the Japanese motor ship Ryo Yei Maru, in tow of the Marbaret Dollar.

The Ryo Yei Maru, with the stiff and frozen bodies of two Japanese sailors propped up in the stern, was found tossing on the turbulent waters of the Pacific. Dead hands at the tiller—steering a course beyond the comprehension of those that live.

What happened on this ghost ship before the last sparks of life fluttered out of the bodies of the last two survivors?

It is not a pretty thing to contemplate. Evidence discloses that the law pertaining to the survival of the fittest was the law recognized on this craft.

Dr. L. T. Seadey, quarantine station boarding officer, said there was no doubt that cannibalism was practiced aboard the illfated ship.

It is thought that at least a dozen Japanese fishermen were aboard the vessel when it left its home port. Where the home port is has not yet been found out. Opinions have been advanced here that the ship drifted across the Pacific, possibly even from Japan.

Aides of the Japanese consulate at Seattle were here today in an effort to solve the grisly tragedy of the sea.

The Ryo Yei Maru, which translated means "good and prosperous", is a three-masted motor ship, 85 feet in length.

As a remedy for divorce a Chicago judge urges men not to marry until they reach the age of reason. But that would bar so many from marriage altogether.

Zoning Appeals Board Takes Action In Three Cases

One Appeal Is Granted And Two Others Are Refused

Board of Zoning Appeals at its session Tuesday afternoon in the city building, heard three appeals from decisions of the city engineer. Action was taken in all three cases, one appeal being granted and the other two refused. The members of the board in attendance were Matthew Gunton, the chairman and Mrs. Florence Pearson.

The appeal in the case of E. S. Kahl, 310 Northview avenue, was granted and the city engineer directed to grant him a permit for the improvement to be made.

The case was that in which Mr. Kahl owns a lot at 310 Northview avenue, which is 160 feet deep and extends to Elizabeth street. It is a Class B residence district.

Mr. Kahl sought a permit for the erection of a duplex facing Northview avenue and two single family houses facing Elizabeth street. The houses facing Elizabeth street are to have garages constructed at the rear with living quarters above them. The permit was refused in the first instance because of the lack of yard-room required by the zoning regulations.

Mrs. Frank Reynolds, 311 Northview avenue, appeared and expressed some opposition, until it was explained that the duplex would not have porches extending out in front of it but would have sun porches, which would really be enclosed rooms. There was also the question of whether or not garages would not eventually be asked for the duplex. With the understanding that there would be no porches on the duplex and no garages built for the duplex, opposition of Mrs. Reynolds and the zoning board was removed and the appeal granted.

Appeal of W. L. Burford of 726 Arlington avenue, for permission to enclose a five foot porch in front of his home, in which he conducts a store and use the same for store purposes, was refused by the board of zoning appeals on the grounds that there was no other house in the same square that had an enclosed porch or in any way violated the building line. It was suggested to Mr. Burford that he could construct an L shaped addition in the rear of his home for living purposes and use more of the present building for store purposes. This course may be followed.

The third and final case was that of Carl T. Rohrer, 103 Garfield avenue, who sought permission to enclose the front porch of his new home in glass. It was refused.

Mr. Rohrer failed to appear in his own behalf and there was also no person present expressing opposition to the request of Mr. Rohrer.

The board took the action of refusing the appeal on the ground that in their opinion it was not consistent for a person to start the erection of a home on which a front porch is planned, then before it is completed, seek to enclose the porch for which permission has been secured, because it did not conflict with the zoning regulations of the city. The attitude of the board was that the person erecting a new home should know the zoning regulation and plan accordingly, not expect the board to make an exception for them. A different attitude is held by the board in regard to older houses in the older residence districts, which were for the most part constructed before there was such a thing as a zoning regulation.

BOILER EXPLODES

(International News Service)

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Nov. 2.—Suspicion that the home of A. J. Monaghan of Shenandoah, which was demolished by an explosion early yesterday, was dynamited by enemies of Monaghan was dispelled today when authorities expressed the opinion that a large copper boiler, recently installed, exploded. Mrs. Monaghan and a neighbor suffered shock in the blast, and the entire neighborhood was rocked.

Postmaster And Aides Now Making Plans To Help Santa Claus

Preparations are being made at the local postoffice to take care of the heavy mails, which will begin soon as the holiday season approaches.

Already plans are being made for two branch postoffices, in addition to the regular seventh ward office, one to be located at the intersection of Mill street and Long avenue and the other at 116 West Long avenue.

These offices will sell stamps, register letters and take parcel post packages, as well as selling money orders.

"Yes, I believe that the mail this Christmas will be the heaviest in years," says Edwin W. Crawford, postmaster. "We are getting word from the postoffice department already to increase our forces as soon as the rush starts, so that we can handle the mails more efficiently.

"Collections will be made oftener and there will be an increase in the staff of collectors. Perhaps some more parcel post trucks will be added as the mails increase."

JURY CONVICTS FOUR OF ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Nov. 2.—Jury verdict returned this morning found guilty four out of six of the men who attempted the jail break at the Mercer county jail on October 13.

The four were found guilty on the two counts of conspiracy to escape and attempted escape. Those found guilty are Leroy and Delbert Rowe of Grove City, Charles Semple of Clarksville and Lester Riley of Greenville.

Dennis Livermore of Sharon entered a plea of guilty on the two counts before the trial while the sixth and alleged leader Warren Patterson of Grove City is in the Grove City hospital where he was operated on about ten days ago.

The six men were found together in the same cell with saws and other material for attempting escape and had partly sawed their way out when discovered.

At the hearing they denied the use of saws and any attempt being made to escape but admitted that they had gather together in the cell for a game of cards.

It is likely that the four will be sentenced by the court on Thursday.

Motor Club Head Warns Of Danger

Says Season Arrives To Guard Against Carbon Monoxide Poisoning

The season is at hand when motorists cannot afford to be indifferent to the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning, which increases enormously with the coming of cold weather, says Bernard Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor Club, and he points out that every season brings this danger to car owners.

"Carbon monoxide is a subtle enemy," says Mr. Hanlon. "This gas, which is generated within the engine of the car is colourless and odorless. The small garage is the scene of many tragic effects of this poisoning. In the conventional sized garage of this type, if the engine is run but three minutes with the doors closed, enough carbon monoxide is generated to kill a man. Because of this, the car owner should exercise every precaution against the running of the engine with the doors closed. Even the warming up process should be completed in the open air.

"The person overcome by this poison can sometimes be revived if removed to the open air and artificial respiration methods employed immediately. But, in most cases this is inadequate. The only certain way to prevent a tragedy is to avoid even the slightest contact with this ever present menace to winter motoring."

This is No Accident Month. Under the supervision of the Western Pennsylvania Safety Council, industries of this part of the state are conducting a No Accident drive in the hope that accidents will be lessened. Here in New Castle the Carnegie Steel company is observing the month and at 1 and 9 o'clock in the morning and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon the mill whistle is blown to remind the employes that this is No Accident Month.

The No Accident movement is the offspring of the Safety First movement. Safety first is now a part of every plant and following this out, the industries are trying to eliminate as far as possible, all accidents in the plant.

That November should be chosen as No Accident month is a happy coincidence. It is the month in which Thanksgiving Day comes and every person who has escaped without accident in the months past can well afford to return thinks. As a demonstration of their thankfulness they should endeavor to stay as far away from accidents as possible.

Pass them all in a 100-mile run!

That's what a Franklin does, easily and tirelessly

BUILT for higher average speed, from the famous air-cooled motor to the finely balanced, flexible chassis, a Franklin outperforms and out-runs them all in a run of 100 miles or more.

A Franklin covers the miles with such even speed and smoothness you are unaware of the distance you have traveled. No stops for water or engine attention — the air-cooled motor purrs on, efficient and unfalteringly. No doubts as to whether you will be annoyingly delayed. You are surprised at the extra miles you cover—often you arrive at your destination sooner than you expected

Back of this higher average speed, the riding and driving ease, the performance and economy, the faithful and efficient service — stand Franklin engineering principles — sound, tested, advanced.

Let us explain the engineering principles which make possible the exclusive features Franklin offers you. Then have a demonstration and you will quickly understand why the Franklin Owner's next car is so generally another Franklin.

Police Officers Serve Lunch At City Hall Locker Room

With the inauguration of the eight hour turn and the necessity of the police officers on duty in the central station staying on the job for eight hours without time off for lunch, the men on duty have set about to provide for their comfort in the matter of meals while on duty.

On the second floor above the patrol barn and in the locker rom, there has been a table rigged up on horses. Chairs have been provided, also a gas hotplate, a large coffee pot and other necessities. Some of the friends of the department game them a start with coffee and sugar.

The first meal was served at noon Tuesday with Thomas Lynch as the chef, at least as far as the making of the coffee was concerned. It is intimated that Tom is so proficient along this line that he will soon be making pies.

It's said that Ray Thompson will be on the job for the later turns. One of the things required, is that each man wash and dry the dishes used by him.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Results Are What Count

The promises of a candidate for public office are not always a guarantee of what he will do if elected. They come with much better grace if they are based upon actual results of what he has done.

Among the candidates named by the Republican Party for city office are two men whose records as councilmen are an evidence of the merit of their promises for the future. The two are Louis G. Genkinger, candidate for mayor and William T. Burns, candidate for city council.

The outstanding feature of the present council has been the improvement of streets in this city. In all, 19 streets have been paved either entirely or in part. Were the new paving laid end to end it would measure 3.6 miles. In addition, two streets have been resurfaced and two streets have been widened. No similar activity in street improvement has been seen in this city in many years.

The credit for this splendid piece of work goes to all of the council, of course, but surely the head of the department in which it originated has proved himself as a capable, efficient city officer.

The head of the street department for the past two years has been Louis G. Genkinger, the Republican candidate for mayor. It is common talk upon the streets of the city that he has made an unprecedented record as the head of this department. He has proved his ability as a city officer. Now the Republican Party asks you to demonstrate your encouragement of faithful, efficient service, by elevating him to the mayor's office.

This is no time for political experiments, nor for tampering with city or county government. Wouldn't it be to the advantage of this city to have a council and mayor elected who will work in harmony?

Every candidate upon the Republican ticket is worthy. They should be supported by Republican voters.

Crowds To Follow Grove City Team To Beaver Falls

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 2.—Many local Grove City people and students of Grove City College will attend the annual Grove City-Geneva football game next Saturday at Beaver Falls. Tickets for the game and seat reservations have been placed on sale in the college office and may be secured from Athletic Director Robert E. Thorn or Miss Daubenspeck

The advance sale of tickets for the Grove City section of the large stadium has been very large and indications point to a record crowd accompanying Coach Berry's Crimson machine to Beaver Falls. The odds on the game have not been placed on either team so that the local fans are assured of a real game.

Safety zones. Yes we have them. But they might be better. What safety is there from the reckless or careless motorist, in painted lines and movable standards to which chains are attached. The motorists are constantly hitting standards and putting them out of commission.

Seems as though it would be better, if the safety zones were of a more permanent character and even a slight step up from the cartway. If of a more solid construction, the motorist would have more regard for them.

Any Hardwood Flooring will increase the value of your new home

—but CROMAR, in addition, offers the greatest protection to your flooring-investment.

In addition to the advantages common to all good hardwood floors, CROMAR offers you these:

1. More superb beauty of a warm lustre.
2. Greater resistance to rough every-day wear.
3. Cleanable, rounded groove instead of uncleanable, square crack.
4. Absolute evenness in applying the various finishing coats.
5. And CROMAR is the only hardwood flooring that is moisture-proofed before it leaves the factory.

Here is the reason: Marvelously efficient and exact machines do all the scraping, sanding, filling, varnishing, waxing—and the moisture-proofing—at the factory. The most skillful human hand cannot equal the work of the powerful and precise CROMAR machines especially designed for the production of the most beautiful and the most durable oak flooring—completely finished before it leaves the factory—like furniture.

Get in touch with us today—let us show you a sample of CROMAR and demonstrate its many advantages. We'll gladly mail you a booklet which explains how speedy, patented machines scrape, polish, fill, varnish and wax CROMAR at the factory, and how thus the cost of Hardwood Floors and the time for installing them are greatly reduced.

This booklet illustrates the patented, cleanable, surface groove—the moisture resisting coating to prevent warping—and it tells why CROMAR floors reduce dusting, cleaning and even coal bills, when nailed over a sub-floor.

Few Children Work In Class Industry

Only 4 Per Cent Of Workers Are Under 14 Years Of Age; Shows Improvement

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 2.—Child workers are slowly passing out of the picture in the glassware industry in Pennsylvania according to the Department of Labor and Industry.

This situation shows a striking improvement over conditions shown in a survey made 20 years ago, the department said. The survey included 13 plants in and near Pittsburgh, three in the northwest-central part of the state and four in or near Philadelphia.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A WITCH RIDES ABROAD IN THE MOONLIGHT

As for Batty—did he hear Peter's cries?

He did not. The Bat might have been deaf, for all the attention he paid to the boy who had offended him. He passed over the clearing, heading straight for the tall, dark trees beyond. Nor was he flying smoothly as a bird, but with long, thick wings outspread he went hippety-hoppeting through the air, and there was something about his jerky motions that Peter didn't like.

What was it the queer fellow reminded him of? Suddenly Batty soared high and for a second was outlined against the moon, which had just rolled out from behind a large tree trunk. And in that second Peter remembered a picture he had seen.

"Old Mother Witch!" cried the boy. "A sure-enough Old Mother Witch! All Batty needs is a broomstick!" And for a moment forgetting his fear, Peter laughed. Right then, however, the moon rolled behind another tree, and the boy had hard work to make out the form of the furry flyer. Once the Bat had flitted into the dusky shadows of the deep woods Peter was sure he could never find him.

Peter took to his heels and ran after Batty. Nor did he dare take his eyes from Batty, and since one cannot well watch one's step and gaze upward at the same time, it was not very long before the boy came to grief.

A SLY ROOT CAUGHT JAMIE'S TOE AND BROUGHT HIM TUMBLING TO THE GROUND

A rascally root twisted its tricky way under the soft gray moss—a sly root, that caught Peter's toe and brought him tumbling to the ground. And when the boy stopped seeing stars and looked up to see the Bat his heart hopped into his mouth. Not a sign of the furry flier. Batty had taken a mean revenge, just as Peter had been afraid he would, and flitted into the shadows.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov 2.—Here's the latest claimant to the title of Pennsylvania's oldest hunter.

He's Emanuel Plank, who owns a farm near here. Plank is 82 years old but he says his age won't add anything to the safety of rabbits and quail in his neighborhood. He has a hunting license and means to use it.

Grandmother Knew

there was nothing so good for congestion and colds as mustard. But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered.

Musterole gives the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Gently rub it in. See how quickly the pain disappears.

Try Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

Keep Stomach Young!

Eat What You Want

When the food you eat goes into your acid-soaked stomach, it sours and can't digest, makes foul gas and sour bile. The blood takes these poisonous acids and carries them through the body. Naturally it makes you miserable and despondent, because your system is not nourished—you lose weight.

Pape's Diapepsin dissolves the acids and sweetens the stomach. It digests the food; no more sour bile is taken up by the blood. Your appetite is like a youngster's again, and gradually you get back your health, flesh and energy.

Chew a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin after meals. It tastes good, and relieves the misery of indigestion in five minutes. It will keep your stomach young and vigorous so you can eat anything you want without being afraid of the consequences.

In Day's News

Gen. John J. Carty, the latest recipient of the John Fritz gold medal the highest honor bestowed in America for engineering achievement is vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and an Engineer whose ability as master of telephoning has been of much value to the nation. He receives this medal in special recognition of his recent successful demonstration of wireless telephony from coast to coast, to the Hawaiian Islands and to Paris. Gen. Carty has been with the American Telephone and Telegraph company since boyhood when he found his way into the office of the then newly founded and as yet struggling company in Boston. Inventive genius and a natural aptitude for experimentation led him to make himself useful to his employers; and his career has been one of steady rise to the highest place in the electrical engineering profession.

There are just two kinds of Americans: those who have a good time and those who are mad about it.

If old dad doesn't dress as well as mother and the girls, it's probably because he rather enjoys a feeling of martyrdom.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

This seems to be the year of strange sights, but perhaps the strangest in New Castle recently was that of a young man walking down South Mill street Tuesday afternoon wearing a straw hat. And Tuesday was the day that ushered in the month of November, and rabbit season.

Quite a large sized squirrel was noted hopping about on Blaine street near Wallace avenue, this morning. It was a tame one, as pedestrians could approach within a few feet of it, before it would scamper up a tree.

Since the improvement of North street between North and Falls streets and from Lincoln avenue north, the North Mercer street hill between Grant and Lincoln is being traversed by many more cars than formerly. Some method of permanently improving this hill will probably have to be devised now because of increased traffic. Some years ago this hill was supposed to be too steep for much traffic but autos negotiate the hill without any trouble now-a-days.

Rabbit runners are quite common in New Castle today. Most of the hunters who were out yesterday, the first day of the season, came back with some game. Rabbits were reported quite numerous.

It takes a man like Harry G. Euwer, former resident, who has been out of New Castle for some years, to come back and note progress being made in New Castle. Local residents, who are here every day in the year, fail to appreciate the strides that New Castle has been making of recent years. Mr. Euwer was surprised at the progress that he noted on all sides, and said that the town gave him the impression of making more progress in the past year or so than for many years past.

Shrubs are being planted on the big lawn at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. In a year or so that hillside will be a bower of beauty.

A hick town is a place where half the people sit in their cars on Main street to watch the other half walk by on Saturday.

Coughs Stopped Almost Instantly

A New, Safe Prescription

A famous physician's prescription called Thoxine relieves the most stubborn coughs that otherwise might hang on for weeks. Acts on new theory, relieves the inflammation and irritation which is almost always the cause of the cough,—stops it like magic. Thoxine is equally good for sore throat, for which purpose it is far superior to gargles. Contains no dope, chloroform or other harmful drugs. Once used you will never be without it. Pleasant tasting, easy to take and safe for the whole family. Remember one swallow stops night coughs or sore throat within 15 minutes or money back. 35c., 60c. and $1.00. Sold by Love & Megown and all good drug stores.

Youth Is Killed, Another Dying, As Result Of Quarrel

(International News Service)

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 2. — After probably fatally wounding Herman John Bailey, 16, during a quarrel near Smyrna, Del., William Stanley, 17, committed suicide by shooting himself in the abdomen today, according to reports received here.

The boys, both residents of Smyrna, are believed to have quarreled while drinking.

The shots were heard by neighbors who placed the boys in an auto and rushed them to the Dover hospital. There Stanley was pronounced dead and Bailey was said to be dying from two bullet wounds in the stomach.

Four Bandits To Die In Chair For Killing Messenger

(International News Service)

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 2.—The four bandits who held up and killed George M. Condit, payroll messenger for the Reid Ice Cream company in Newark in July, 1926, will die in the electric chair during the week of Nov. 13-20. Application for pardon or commutation of their death sentences to life imprisonment had been denied by the court of pardons today.

The men, "Big Joe" Juliano, "Little Joe" Juliano, Louis "Kid Ruff" Capozzie and Christopher Barone, were taken word of the court's decision by Rev. Father Cornelius J. McInerney.

TEACHER CAUSES PUPIL'S ARREST

(International News Service)

MT. HOLLY, N. J., Nov. 2.—William Albertson, 14 years old, a pupil in the fifth grade of the Mt. Holly grammar school, was on trial here today on a charge of assault and battery brought by his teacher, Miss Caroline Carroll, 23, who said the boy struck her in the face and broke her nose.

Miss Carroll declared that she sought to discipline William for failing to salute the flag properly when she opened her class with this formality. She stated that the boy struck her arm when she placed his hand on his shoulder, and that she then seized his hair, whereupon he hit her in the face. William claims he struck in self defense.

Balchen May Be "The Dawn" Pilot

(International News Service)

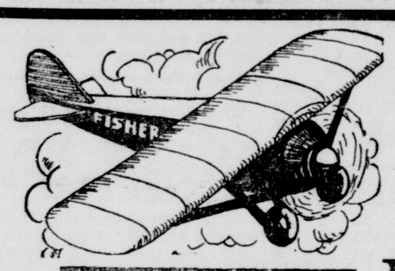

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Fra Wilson Grayson announced today that Bernt Balchen, former Norwegian naval lieutenant and a pilot for Commander Richard E. Byrd in the Arctic and on his Atlantic flight, probably would be her pilot on another attempt to fly her amphibian plant, "The Dawn", to Copenhagen this year.

Nation's Railroads To Enter Fight For Big Tax Reduction

Railroads Join Fight Of Organized Business For Reduction

Says Railroads Have Expended More Money For Taxes Than In Dividends

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Spokesman for the nation's railroads today joined in the fight of organized business to force a $400,000,000 tax cut in the coming Congress despite the warnings of President Coolidge and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon that this would cause a deficit.

Pleading the cause of the railroads before the House ways and means committee, C. S. Duncan, economist for the Association of Railway Executives, asserted that the railroads have paid out more money in taxes than dividends in the last seven years.

A flat cut in the corporation income tax rate from 13 1-2 to 10 per cent was demanded by Duncan and Alfred P. Thom, the association's general counsel.

Representatives of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association, National Coal Association and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce endorsed the demand that the corporation tax rate be cut before "nuisance" taxes are abolished.

Many Stockholders

Denying that this reduction would solely benefit men of great wealth, Duncan pointed out that 1,000,000 people own stock in railroads alone. The Treasury has estimated that more than 3,000,000 individuals own stock in corporations.

"Secretary Mellon has told you that in 1924 all corporations reporting net income had such a burden of taxes that 'for every dollar paid in dividends 54 per cent were paid in taxes'," said Duncan.

"I should like to call your attention to the situation with respect to class 1 railroads for the same year. In the calendar year 1924 for every dollar paid in dividends these railroads paid $1.06 in taxes.

"For the past seven years the railroads have had to pay more in taxes, with the possible exception of 1921 and 1926, than they were able to pay in cash dividends to their stockholders."

The annual tax bill of class 1 railroads, local, state and federal, is $388,000,000 a year, he said. The railroads would save $28,500,000 a year if the corporation tax rate were cut to 10 per cent, he said.

The committee had before it a statement of the first lukewarm advocate of tax reduction. Chester H. Gray, representing the American Farm Bureau Federation, asserted that Congress' first duty is to pay off the remaining $18,000,000,000 of war debt.

Harry L. Gandy, secretary of the National Coal Association, ignored the proposed abolition of the automobile and "nuisance" taxes in pleading for a lower corporation rate.

"Of all the inequitable features of the revenue act of 1926, undoubtedly the most serious is the discrepancy between the rate of tax levied on corporate income and that levied on the income of individuals," he said.

She had been made controller by her husband and the controller is always first in line to succeed the mayor. Below, Joseph Hogue, left, controller of the preceding administration who claims to be the logical successor to Duvall, and, right, Walter D. Myers, Democratic nominee, defeated by Duvall in 1925, who likewise claims the office.

RUTTER STUDIO IS REMODELED

Alterations In Building Result In Big Improvement In His Studio

Rutter Studio, owned and operated by Clark H. Rutter at 125½ East Washington street, has been completely remodeled into one of the most artistic and uptodate photographic studios of this district, during the period of several months that the Graham and Harlans buildings were being remodeled.

The changes made were in accordance with the ideas of Mr. Rutter, who made the changes himself. The general scheme is Old English. Old Fashioned doors with rounded tops and adorned with brass trimmings of special design are used.

The reception room at the front of the studio is done in old ivory and walnut. One of the features of this room is an old English fireplace. The camera room is unusual and pleasing. The old type backgrounds in frames and pushed here and there are missing. Instead, there is a stucco arch in which the backgrounds are raised or lowered as wanted in much the same manner as scenery in a theatre. Oak trimmings and a paper giving the impression of roughened tinted plaster are used. There is a dressing room with ivory finished furniture.

There are flood lights, spot lights and a general light of 50,000 candle power. The photographic apparatus is the latest and best. The place is now open for public inspection.

Two Are Victims In Cycle Smash

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 2.—Surviving his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Yanusiewski, aged 35, of Canonsburg, who was so terribly injured that she lived only a few hours, Charles Yanusiewski, aged 4, died at the Canonsburg hospital, early last night, from hurts received when John Weaver of Pittsburgh, riding a motorcycle, crashed into them as they were walking along the highway on the outskirts of Canonsburg Sunday evening.

Both the mother and son suffered fractured skulls, in addition to other hurts. The husband, Adam Yanusiewski, survives with two daughters and two sons. Weaver is under arrest to await the outcome of an inquest into the tragedy.

Through Traffic Routes Designated

New State Code Provides For Compulsory Stops At Through Roads

According to the new motor code that becomes effective on January 1, many cities of Pennsylvania are designating through-traffic routes whereby it will be unlawful for any driver to enter or cross such streets without stopping.

Under the new code signs bearing the words "Thru Traffic Stop" in letters at least six inches high must be erected at the entrances to through traffic streets and highways and a fine of ten dollars or imprisonment for five days is provided for violation of the law.

Also about January 1, the State Highway Department plans to make the Lincoln Highway and one other main thoroughfare through-traffic roads and other main highways as soon afterwards as practical.

First, second and third class cities are authorized by the new Code to designate such through-traffic routes boroughs and towns are not provided for. Therefore in these centers of population it depends upon the secretary of Highways to designate arterial thoroughfares.

Pennsylvania Motor Federation believe that the making of through-traffic routes in municipalities will result in the decrease in the number of accidents for about 80 per cent of all accidents in cities are at street intersections and are the result of pure carelessness and foolhardy disregard of the rights of others.

The purpose of the provision will be defeated through if too many arterial roads are designated in cities and elsewhere. At important crossings of arterial highways it will still be necessary to control traffic and the Federation believes that no arbitrary or automatic device can replace a traffic officer.

Wife Kills Husband, Then Calls Officer, Claims Self Defense

JEANNETTE, Pa., Nov. 2.—Calmly sitting on a chair before the dead body of her husband, John Williams, 44, a laborer employed by the Three Rivers Coal company, Mrs. Ida Williams, 42, awaited the arrival of police in her home, 1612 Penn avenue, Jeannette, yesterday afternoon. Five minutes earlier a woman's quiet and controlled voice had informed Justice of the Peace Edward A. Egan that she had shot her husband.

Squire Egan notified Chief of Police George Yurt and both rushed to the house, where the family occupied a second story apartment. In the room with the body of Williams, who had been instantly killed by a single shot fired through his heart, they found Mrs. Williams, calm, and Mrs. Laura Johnson, landlady and occupant of the first floor apartment, in hysterics. Tossed carelessly on the floor alongside the dead man was the revolver used in the killing.

Mrs. Williams claims self defense. She says her husband had been drinking heavily all morning and that he had struck her and threatened her life.

With a formal charge of murder lodged against her by Chief Yurt, she is being held in the Jeannette police station.

Acid Scalp

How many carefully coiffured heads can stand the test of eyes only inches away, and reveal not a speck of dandruff? How many women can warm to the dance, and know their hair will have no taint for the partner who holds them close?

No one can be sure who has acid scalp.

If you even suspect this acid condition of the scalp, it is time for Danderine. This scientific preparation will neutralize any acidity; and dissolve all dandruff if there is any. And it always gives the hair itself a lovely softness and sheen. It will wave better, hold a wave longer, and behave better all the time if you just occasionally apply a few drops of Danderine. Try it! Every drugstore has this perfect conditioner of the scalp and hair, and a thirty-five cent bottle lasts for weeks.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES R. STEWART

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Call it a "Sabbath day crusade," if you're one of the godly, or a "blue law campaign," if you're a heathen, but a drive is due to be launched at the coming session of congress, to put a good, tight Sunday lid on Washington, that the whole United States will hear of.

To folks out in the provinces, this fight may not seem now like a national test of strength, but that's because they haven't watched it simmering.

Washington be derned!—as a mere municipality.

The locale of the rumpus is barely an incident. The principle's the thing at stake—who's to boss our capital?

Remember, the question of Sunday observance in Washington never has come to a definite showdown yet.

There's been a little skirmishing—that's all.

Skirmishing?

However, in these skirmishes congressional noses have been bloodied. Ink stands have been hurled. Frank J. Hogan—a million dollar lawyer—big enough to be legal advisor to Edward L. Doheny, the oil plutocrat—has been beaned with a carafe, and had a bump the size of a hen's egg raised on his forehead. Congressman Blanton has held Congressman Bloom down, on his back on a table, while he choked him.

Some skirmishes!

Now I ask—

After such skirmishes, is it reasonable to suppose that the regular battle, when it comes, will be a dandy?

Washington, as we all know, has no city council. Congress makes its laws.

Why so many members of congress—generally very orthodox, church-going individuals at home—should be so balky about voting Sunday-closing for the capital is a problem anybody's at liberty to guess on. It simply is a fact that, every time such a suggestion is made, a terrible row starts.

A Sunday observance measure is introduced regularly at every session.

Just as regularly it is referred to what is known as the "district (meaning District of Columbia) committee" of the house of representatives, of which Congressman McLeod of Michigan has, for some time, been chairman. McLeod always calls a meeting to consider the proposition, and with equal regularity, has to adjourn it summarily and yell for the capitol police when the cold steel makes its appearance.

Thus it is that Washington is one of the few cities (if not the only one) in the country without Sunday-closing regulations.

Yes, sir, everything can run wide open on Sunday in Washington, if it chooses. As a matter of fact, a good many small retail establishments, in addition to the customary drug stores, cigar counters and news stands, do operate as usual, at least Sunday mornings. Movies and similar resorts, which most cities simply tolerate, more or less doubtfully, are perfectly legal.

Representative W. C. Lankford of Georgia, Sunday observance captain in numerous small engagements at recent sessions of congress, promises to become generalissimo in the biggest one on record at the next session.

School Board Sanctions City Institute Plan

Supt. Smith And Education Committee To Plan For Extension Classes

Flagpole To Be Erected This Fall On New Lincoln School Grounds

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 2.—At the regular monthly meeting of the board of education which convened in the Lincoln school last evening the question of Teachers Institute was brought up by Superintendent Ray Smith.

Mr. Smith stated that for the past three years no institute has been conducted for the Ellwood teachers and that this is not in accordance with the state laws concerning schools. However, instead of sending the teachers away, and incurring a great deal of expense Mr. Smith suggested extension courses once per week with a speaker brought here for the teachers. In this way the pupils would miss no school and the local institutions would still be within the law. This plan was approved by the board.

The members also decided to erect a flag pole on the Lincoln grounds similar to the ones on the other school properties. The pole will be 60 feet in height and add to the beauty of the grounds.

Members of the board accepted an invitation from the Rotary club to meet with them Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church in honor of their celebration of Educational Week. The following Thursday they will meet with the Kiwanians at which time J. W. Offutt will speak.

Chairman of the building committee reported that grading and sodding about the Lincoln school has been finished and that the fire-escapes had been inspected on the Central school and the necessary repairs made. Also carpenters are constructing cupboards in the dressing rooms for the football squad as per instructions at last meeting.

Chairman of the educational committee reported that the proposed night school would not be carried out as several applicants seemed to object to the small fee which would have to be charged.

Dr. McDowell Gives An Interesting Talk Here

English Professor And Dean Of Women Talks On Literature At Woman's Dinner

Fifty-Four Members Of Woman's Club Enjoy Annual Thanksgiving Menu Tuesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 2.—Dr. McDowell, professor of English and Dean of Women of Geneva College was the principal speaker at the annual Thanksgiving dinner of the Ellwood City Woman's Club which took place in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

"Literature" was Dr. McDowell's subject, and she stressed emphatically the importance of imbuing the children with the desire to read good books when they are young. She claims that it is impossible to teach a college student literature in the short span of years in that institution, if he has not had some training in his youth. Dr. McDowell also advocates libraries in the schools, with good clean books instead of dog-eared and worn text-books which are used from year to year, and are not in a sanitary condition. She also emphasized the importance of illustrations in children's books, as they catch the juvenile eye, which would not be otherwise attracted to the printed page, and made known the fact, that the best artists are lending their talents to the colorful and artistic decoration of children's books. An experiment which has been successfully worked out is a Children's Book Fair, with books to appeal to the child from the cradle to the college: progressing from Mother Goose, Legends, myths and so on to the higher cults of learning. A large publishing house "tried out" several different poems on 60,000 school children and the popular ones were placed in school libraries.

In closing her interesting address Dr. McDowell said "There is nothing more important in the world, after children are loaned to us, than to guide them into the knowledge of priceless classics."

Covers were laid for 54 at the dinner. Decorations were carried out in yellow and white with gleaming tapers, and baby chrysanthemums. President, Mrs. Hanes pronounced the invocation, and introduced Miss Seeman who gave two readings: Booth Tarkington's "Penrod's Nervous Breakdown," and John Greenlief Whittier's "The Pumpkin."

Mrs. Mellor, soprano soloist of the Presbyterian church rendered several pleasing solos, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Whittaker. Her repertoire included: "My soul Is An Enchanted Boat," by Woodman, and "The Waltz Song," and "Love is the Wind."

A special guest present, Mrs. W. A. Pond, president of the New Castle Woman's Club, expressed her appreciation and along the lines of Dr. McDowell's talk told of the Book Fair that will take place in New Castle November 13, with the display in the high school. An elaborate pageant will be staged in connection with the the fair, in which each school will characterize an episode.

The other special guests: Mrs. W. E. Renner, past president of the local club, and now residing in Ambridge, and Mrs. W. J. Moore, a former member were called on for a few remarks.

A delicious turkey menu was served by the following members acting as a serving committee: Mesdames Herman Wilson, Ray Chambers, Ed. Mackasak, W. R. Thompson, W. C. Martin and Sam Johnson.

The Beggar's Opera Pleases Large Crowd

If you have thought, perchance, that the art of "wisecracking" belonged to the generation of Mencken, Lardner and Will Rogers, you can forget it, for "The Beggar's Opera", presented in the Scottish Rite Cathedral Tuesday night, was as full of smart sayings as a Broadway revue, and The Beggar's Opera was written in 1728.

It was an unusual sort of offering, this two century old opera of John Gay's, and yet old as it is, it is still witty, still timely and a most satisfying evening's entertainment.

A Shiek of 1728

The play is written about the amours of a dashing highwayman, Captain Macheath, who had a way with women. The modern version of it would be that "the lad certainly knew his oats". His fidelity to his wife may have been questioned, but his popularity, never.

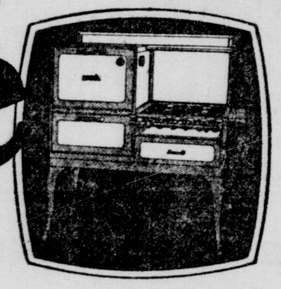

The play was brought out in 1728 as a satire on politics and government of 1728, and after two centuries have rolled around it is still very much to the point, albeit the modern technique may have changed a trifle, but the ways of politicians are little different.

The Beggar's Opera is thoroughly enjoyable. Brilliant in its lines at times, always melodious, and staged in the costumes of the early 18th century, it is a musical play that will always be good.

The cast of the play is a strong one, with particular emphasis upon Polly Peachum, Macheath and Lucy Lockit. And that chorus of lovely English girls. After a look at those feminine examples, Mayor Thompson of Chicago will probably want to rush over and shake hands with King George. It's a good guess that some of them are not going back to Old Albion, for it seems inevitable that some American producer will sign them.

This was the first of the Educational Art series for the winter, and it was a pleasing opening. There may have been a few that found the English accent a trifle difficult of understanding, for the stage was knee deep in "haitches" that had been dropped, but aside from this "The Beggar's Opera" was well worth the seeing. Probably 2,000 were in the local audience last night.

Civil Service Reform Under Grant

FROM THE DAYS OF WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON, AS SOON AS A NEW PRESIDENT WAS ELECTED, HE WAS BESIEGED BY A SWARM OF MEN OF HIS PARTY, EACH HOPEFUL OF BEING APPOINTED TO SOME GOVERNMENT POSITION.

UNDER THE "SPOILS SYSTEM", AS IT WAS CALLED, THE INAUGURATION OF A NEW PRESIDENT WAS USUALLY FOLLOWED BY THE REMOVAL FROM GOVERNMENT POSITIONS OF MANY MEN APPOINTED BY THE PRECEDING ADMINISTRATION, AND THE SUBSTITUTION OF OTHERS (WHETHER THEY WERE MORE EFFICIENT OR NOT) WHO BELONGED TO THE NEW PRESIDENT'S POLITICAL PARTY.

DURING GRANT'S ADMINISTRATION, A BILL WAS PASSED (1871) GIVING THE PRESIDENT POWER TO CREATE A COMMISSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADMITTING APPLICANTS FOR POSITIONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE BY COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS, INSTEAD OF MERELY IN REWARD FOR PARTY SERVICES.

THIS PLAN OPERATED FAIRLY SUCCESSFULLY FOR THREE YEARS, BUT AT THE END OF THAT TIME, CONGRESS DECLINED TO APPROPRIATE ANY MORE MONEY TO CARRY ON THE WORK OF THE COMMISSION.

TO SETTLE GRID TITLE BY POINT SYSTEM

League Committee To Review Records

Gardner Plan Of Determining Championship Is Adopted By League Members

New Castle Is Not Out Of Running For Honors; Committee To Meet November 26

The W. P. I. A. L. football championship this year will be determined by the point-system, and not by a picked Syracuse Trophy committee, said Ralph H. Gardner today.

Gardner granted his interview in order to put the quietus on the persistent rumors that the New Castle High team would not be considered this season, due to their defeat at the hands of South High, Youngstown. The energetic faculty manager at Senior High made it quite plain that the defeat would not figure.

At the spring meeting of the W. P. I. A. L. members it was voted upon to adopt a new system for the determination of championship elevens, and to prohibit the playing of post-season games to settle the title rights. There will not be any post-season games this year for the W. P. I. A. L. championship.

Gardner Plan

The point system plan originally drafted to the league by Ralph H. Gardner, was voted favorably by that small group and is a most important step toward the solution of championship affairs.

Points are awarded as follows: 100 points for each league game won; 50 points for each game tied; 10 points for each game that the defeated team wins; and 5 points for each game that the defeated team ties; also 5 points for each game that the tied team wins. The total points won divided by the number of games played will be the standing of the teams.

Another important step taken by the committee was the plan to classify the various schools of this section into Class A and B groups. The schools with an enrollment of over 500 are to be Class A, and the schools with less than 500 students as Class B. The only difficulty concerning the championship this year lies in the fact that a great number of schools had completed their schedules before the system was adopted and that many Class A schools are playing Class B schools this year. The committee will attempt at the end of the year to settle this matter, but if they are not able to arrive at a solution, there will not be an award made. After a school has been classified it must play a minimum of five games within its class to be considered for the title.

Locals In Running

The W. P. I. A. L. committee will meet again on November 26, at the close of the scholastic season and try to determine the championship. It was originally intended that the point system would not be put into effect until 1928, but it was also agreed upon that the committee should try and decide via this method this season. At the meeting the members will go over and compile the records of the various teams in the running.

As far as can be determined there are five teams in the running for the W. P. I. A. L. title this year, Westinghouse, Norwin, Jeannette, Greensburg and New Castle. Gardner figures that New Castle High has scored 340 points this year, via the point system.

New Castle High has played three league games this year and has won the mall. Mars High, Donora and Peabody. The Mars team is classified as B, and the other two schools in the Class A division. It is believed that Swissvale will be in the Class B section, leaving New Castle with two Class B teams on their 1927 schedule and three Class A teams.

The following men will act as the football committee in charge of rendering the championship and to classify the schools next year according to their enrollment: J. W. Cameron, J. F. Brunk, H. B. Weaver, Samuel Sausold, Charles F. Young, D. W. Stewart, C. R. McClelland, John R. Kurtz, S. C. Gillespie, J. G. Hultin, and Ralph H. Gardner.

Walker Kayoes Mike McTigue In Chicago Battle

Walker Stops McTigue With Terrible Assault In First Round

By GENE HOFFMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mickey Walker will have no further opposition from Mike McTigue in his ambitious campaign to scale the light heavyweight ladder. McTigue is through. He perhaps is ready to admit as much today.

In two minutes of the most deliberate and highly concentrated assault and battery ever witnessed in a Chicago prize ring, Walker last night sounded taps over the pugilistic career of the man who once reigned as light heavyweight champion of the world.

The bout, was scheduled for ten rounds. It ended after two minutes and fifteen seconds of the first round. The crowd was on its feet. Walker and Jack Kearns, his manager, were pacing the ring like caged lions. Seconds were working over the prostrate McTigue who looked as though he would never rise again.

University of Michigan has defeated Ohio State on the gridiron 19 times, lost three times and tied twice since football relations began between the two institutions 30 years ago. The Buckeyes' first tie was in 1910, their first victory in 1919. They also won in 1920 and 1921, but all other games have been taken by Ann Arbor players.

Gridders Resume Training Tuesday

New Castle High Football Team Back In Harness After One-Day Layoff

HOPE TO DEFEAT SWISSVALE HIGH

After a one-day rest the New Castle High football squad resumed training at Ben Franklin High field on Tuesday afternoon in preparation for their game this Saturday with Swissvale High.

The locals came through their contest with Peabody High without suffering any serious injuries and the squad should be in tip-top shape for their encounter with Swissvale.

Little is known of the relative strength of the Swissvale crew this year. They are newcomers to the New Castle schedule and also to the W. P. I. A. L.

With three league victories neatly folded and tucked away in the hopechest, the locals are going to try and stretch it to four on Saturday. Last week Wilkinsburg High downed the Swissvale boys, 32 to 0, and this leaves one with the impression that the locals would have another "breather" this week. However, this advance dope is none too good this year, as evidenced by the many numerous upsets.

Geneva Eleven In Training For Crimson Battle

Geneva Looks For Hardest Game Of Year Saturday With Grove City Team

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 2.—Geneva's gridders are hard at work for the most momentous football struggle of its athletic life—the 1927 battle with Grove City. It will be remembered that Grove City ruined a great Geneva record last year by a sensational 3-0 victory over the conquerors of Harvard. That stigma must be wiped out and one thing is certain on Saturday—no quarter will be asked and none given. Geneva has been scored on but twice and has a series of five victories to show for its season's work, marred only by a tie game with Bucknell, who afterwards defeated Penn State. Grove City has been coming along fast in its last few games and is always at its best against Geneva. This game will bring together two of the finest ball-carriers and field-generals in the district in Schachern and Day, rival quarterbacks. Holsinger and Flenniken are great passers and the air will be a medium for both teams advancing the ball. This game is one of the classics of Western Pennsylvania football and a brilliant game is expected this year.

The two rival coaches "Bo" McMillin and Charley Berry are All-Americans and know how to coach. Their system are radically different, but both very strong.

All the seats in the Reeves Stadium will be reserved for this battle. The sale is already extremely brisk and the largest crowd that ever saw a game in the Beaver Valley is anticipated.

Ty Cobb Confers With Connie Mack About Retirement

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Ty Cobb, the noted Georgia Peach of baseball arrived here today for a conference with Connie Mack, leader of the Athletics which will result in Cobb's retirement from baseball according to reliable reports.

The conference is slated to take place at Shibe Park this afternoon.

"I have been in baseball 23 years," Cobb declared upon his arrival here today with Mrs. Cobb. "I've had about enough of it," he continued.

Everything depends upon the conference with Mack this afternoon Cobb said. "Until then I can't say definitely what I shall do. I don't know just how I stand until I talk with my bosses," he added.

Cobb wired Mack yesterday asking for a conference at 1 o'clock today.

Colored Stars Cancel Battle

The Colored Stars management today made the announcement that the scheduled game Friday afternoon at the Ben Franklin high stadium, has been cancelled.

The cancellation was made necessary by the fact that they could not obtain the field, it will be used for other purposes on that date.

The Stars were to have played the Farrell Wild Cats.

SORDS POINTS
Some Call Him Sande's Superior

By JACK SORDS

Who is the king of turf riders? Is it Earl Sande or Laverne Fator? Not long ago few would hesitate over the name of Sande, but now it seems to be a toss-up. Sande is a more colorful rider, if you can call a rider colorful, but Fater, on the other hand turns a cold shoulder to the hurrahs. To him there is none of the glamor that surrounds Sande. He rides his horse and at the end of the race no one can tell from the expression on his face whether he won or lost. He's a real "poker face."

"Little Hercules," as he is sometimes called, is a natural born rider. Being raised on a ranch in Idaho he learned plenty about horses. He isn't the only one of the family who rides, either. There are other jockeys by the name of Fator, but Laverne is the king of them all.

He accumulated a lot of money through his riding ability and stands ready to keep it rolling in for some time to come, being short in stature and well able to stave off the poundage that is the death knell of all jockeys.

Westminster To Meet Waynesburg Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 2.—Now that the football encounter with the Layden coached Duquesne eleven is registered on the debit side of Westminster's grid docket and the Blues and White have yet to commence their winning streak, "Dyke" Beede and his men face the task of rejuvenating and concentrating this week's practices on the coming game with Waynesburg college scheduled for this Saturday on the opponent's gridiron.

The Blue and White team in the game against the Dukes, lacked the offensive punch that was prevalent in the Allegheny tilt a few weeks ago and with the resumption of practice today Coach Beede intends to point out the necessary improvements and have his aggregation in a determined mood when they match play with Katy Easterday's lads on Saturday.

A noticeable improvement in Westminster's aerial attack was displayed Saturday against Layden's team and the punting of McQuiston added much to the play of the United Presbyterians. However the Blue and White grid team must balance their steady defense with an aggressive attack as the Waynesburg Yellowjackets have already won the respect of opponents in their impressive play to date.

Waynesburg's present team with its weight and speed is sure to cause plenty of trouble but with only a few minor injuries being reported after Saturday's setto with Duquesne, Beede has hopes for an improved brand of football from his proteges this week end.

GROVERS FACE STIFF BATTLE WITH GENEVA

Coach Berry Drills Crimson Warriors For Tough Tussle With Covenanters

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 2. — The football team of Grove City College faces its most important game of the season next Saturday at Beaver Falls, Pa., where "Bo" McMillan's Geneva College eleven will be met.

Grove City fans are carefully considering the achievements of the crimson team so far this season. In his first year of Coaching, Charley Berry has developed the strongest offensive team which Grove City fans have seen in years at Grove City. In four games the Grovers have piled up a total of one hundred forty-four points. These points were scored against the following teams—John Carroll University 7; Juniata College, 60; Allegheny College, 21; and Adrian College, 56.

These facts prove that Berry's men are able to play offensive football. In Day, Kammer, Holsinger, Patorlini and Angelo, the crimson mentor has some high class ball carriers. The only doubt that Grove City followers have concerning their team's ability is defensively.

A total of forty-six points have been marked up this season against the Grovers. It appears that Coach Berry's team is much stronger offensively than defensively. Geneva College has demonstrated that her offense is also powerful.

There will be plenty of brilliant offensive football when these two teams take the field against each other next Saturday afternoon.

Joe Stecher, the Nebraska wrestler, is said to have garnered nearly half a million dollars in the mat game.

B. & O. Sponsors Athletic Plan

Hold Meeting And Organize New Castle Terminal Athletic And Welfare Association

PLAN TO ENTER ALL ACTIVITIES

In connection with a plan of the management of the B. and O. railroad to put athletics and welfare work in a prominent place on the railroad's program of activities a meeting of the local forces was held on Tuesday evening at the office of the general foreman at New Castle Junction.

The outcome of the meeting was the formation of the New Castle Terminal Welfare and Athletic association. A. P. Zeitler was oppointed as temporary chairman of the organization and a program of procedure was mapped out.

Athletics will be given first consideration as gained by the general run of the meeting. New Castle can look forward to some keen competition this year in basketball and bowling as a result of this association.

A meeting will be held in the very immediate future to work out a plan to place the organization on a firm basis to interest the B. and O. group in coming winter activities.

Richards May Be Out Of Swissvale Game On Saturday

Captain "Tippy" Richards of the New Castle high football team, may be out of the Swissvale game on Saturday, was the announcement made today.

It develops that Richards in tackling one of the Peabody runners last week suffered an injury to his neck. The youngster thought nothing of the injury at first, but suffered pains yesterday and was examined by a physician.

Today the grid leader is in bed under a doctors care, and there is a doubt as to whether or not he will be able to get back in the lineup for Saturday.

Castleton Five To Meet Friday

The Castleton five basketball team will have their first meeting and practice at the Lincoln-Garfield gym Friday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. All players are requested to be present in order to organize for the future.

GRID CAPTAINS

—TENNESSEE

Tennessee is making a strong bid for the Southern Conference championship this season under the capable leadership of John Barnhill, chosen almost unanimously for a guard position on last year's all-Southern eleven.

Barnhill has been an outstanding star ever since the day he first donned an orange-colored jersey in the fall of 1925. Despite the handicap of weighing only about 165 pounds, he is a glutton for work and has missed starting and finishing in very few games during his college career.

In addition to playing football, Barnhill is a member of the Tennessee basketball and track teams. He also plays baseball, but is unable to participate in the diamond pastime at Tennessee due to its season running concurrent with that of track.

Barnhill is showing better than ever this year and has served notice by his spectacular play in early season games that he intends repeating for all-Southern laurels.

Grid Championship This Year Will Be Hard To Determine

Many Fine Teams In Line For Title Honors Throughout Country

Notre Dame And Georgia Only Teams Rated High That Have Not Been Defeated

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Just for the sake of talking through his adenoids, the writer would like to declare himself today against the current system of rating football teams by the fact that they have or have not won all games on a schedule that may include very harrowing contests with Upsala, Galludet and the institute for the preservation of ideals. There are some fifteen colleges that remain unbeaten for the 1927 season to date and at least six of them are so much eye wash as far as national ranking is concerned while the status of five more is at least open to reasonable doubt.

Yale has committed the heinous sin of losing a football game this season; yet Yale, judged on its record, belongs absolutely. In fact, for all anyone knows, the Blue may be the greatest team in the country. Anyhow, win, lose or draw, I see fit to place Yale in my list of preferred teams, chosen without regard for their winning percentages.

The list follows:—

Notre Dame, an inevitable choice; Penn State, beaten by Bucknell which was beaten 34 points by the Army; Southern California, also inevitable; Minnesota, Yale, Southern Methodist; Illinois and Georgia.

Two Teams Unbeaten.

Only two outfits in the list, Notre Dame and Georgia, have remained unbeaten and united; three others have tie scores against their records and two have suffered actual defeats. Yet, to me, they constitute the standout teams at this time because they have stepped out with the big timers without losing caste.

However, the drafting of any preferred list is a dangerous thing because the odds are against anyone being able to mention all the deserving entries and still keep the list within the limits of Webster's abridged edition. Nebraska, for example, probably belongs merely on the face of its record. It blew a one-point defeat to Missouri, which really shouldn't mean much. But it does.

For one thing, Missouri had 32 points scored against it by Southern Methodist, which also beat Texas, which previously had taken Vanderbilt. Still, as in the case of Yale, we are trying to live in the present and right at the moment there seems to be slight doubt that Nebraska and Missouri are first class football teams, nationally speaking. They probably rate themselves beyond Iowa state, which tied Illinois early in the year, and altogether they make the big ten conference look none too good with Missouri's rather generous victory over Northwestern.

Still, judged on the records, one can hardly place Nebraska, Missouri and Southern Methodist in the same list, while Illinois' surprise victory over a real good Michigan outfit almost automatically lets the Illini in for the time being.

The secondary list, therefore, might include the following teams, almost any one of which could be advanced to the front rank without further notice:—

Stanford, Missouri, Nebraska, Michigan, Pittsburgh, Washington and Jefferson, Princeton, Washington, Chicago and Tennessee.

Easy For Pitt.

At least, four of these teams, Pittsburgh, W. and J., Princeton and Tennessee have suffered neither defeat nor tie this year. But what of it? Pittsburgh's record shows a series of cross country runs against Thiel, Grove City, West Virginia, Drake, Carnegie Tech and Allegheny. It is unfortunate for Pitt that West Virginia, Drake and Tech had to have weak teams at one and the same time but the point is that decisions over such teams mean no more than a punch in the nose from a chorus man.

Washington and Jefferson has played about the same type of schedule to date and Princeton's only virtue so far is a decision over Cornell. As for Tennessee, insufficient data on its status forbids comment, while New York University hardly can hope to get a ranking of the kind of schedule it has played so far.

I might add that Rochester, Tufts, George Washington, Geneva and Springfield also are among the unbeaten elevens. However, they are the kind you can throw right out like a first ball.

Indiana University has a new raincoat for its gridiron, consisting of six sections of rubberized fabric which cover the field from goal post to goal post. The covering keeps the field in perfect condition, protecting it from either rain or snow.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Mickie Walker, former welterweight champion and present middleweight champion started his quest of the light heavyweight championship last night at Chicago in a decisive manner, knocking out Mike McTigue in the first round. Not so long ago McTigue held the championship now sported by Tommy Loughran. Walker weighed 162 and McTigue hit the beams at 172¼ pounds.

McTigue was sent to the mat three times with a series of right and left hooks to the chin. He took counts of nine on the first two downs and when he went down a third time his manager stepped into the ring stopping the fight. It was Walker's first battle in the light-heavyweight division. According to Walker, he hopes to annex the 175 pound championship though he is little more than a middleweight.

Roy Patterson, pitcher for the Chicago White Sox during the period from 1900 to 1906, when the team was known as the "hitless wonders," died in Black Rock, near Norristown. The ex-pitcher was found wandering the streets of Bridgeport and was sent to the county home. Records credit him with winning 29 games in 1900 and leading the American league in its first year.

Reports are current here that Emmett Rocco and Sandy Seifert will clash in Youngstown, November 11. It will be their second meeting, Rocco having won the first fight. After the initial battle Seifert returned to New York City, where he headquarters. Since that time there have been many reports of a second match having been made. If they are rematched it should prove a thrilling encounter.

"I am not ready to say whether or not I am going to quit the game," said Ty Cobb last night in a dispatch from Detroit. "But I am pretty tired of baseball. I have played a long time. If I do decide to quit, it will be announced after I have had a conference with Connie Mack, Thursday." Evidently Cobb will not make the decision until he hears what Connie has to say.

Walter Hagen played superb golf at the Cedar Crest Country Club, Dallas, Texas, yesterday and his comeback resulted in the defeat of Jack Farrell, Glenhead, N. Y., three and two, in his quest of his fifth championship of the Professional Golfers association. Hagen trailed the youngster almost all the way but wiped out a four hole advantage at the eighteenth and stroked his way to victory.

Ryantown baseball fans are certainly flocking under the banner for the big Smoker they intend to stage at the Old Armory, Neshannock avenue. They have secured many musical numbers, in addition to other features, which will include three boxing bouts. Ryantown was one of the most colorful baseball teams in the Twilight league last season and has many friends in the city.

According to New York reports John McGraw intends to give the Giants a shaking before the team takes the field next spring, but the report that John would retire in favor of Rogers Hornsby is all wet, the reports declare. The Giants are after pitchers and they will go into the field to get them. If St. Louis wants to unload Rhem the Giants will take him.

For many years past public interest in college football has grown steadily with each advancing season, and this year appears to be no exception. The great autumn game evidently has still to reach the peak of its popularity.

Harvard's Big Three

By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1927, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

Harvard having played or attempted to play, Purdue, Holy Cross, Dartmouth and Indiana, will now meet on the gridiron that worthy rival Pennsylvana which foe has just completed an even harder series of games with Brown, Penn State, Chicago and the Navy. In the meantime, the Nassau Tiger which has been in the habit of dining on Johnny Harvard at about this time of the year, tackles the powerful Ohio State eleven, but the interest of the East, except for those with Princeton sympathies will center on Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

Let's take a look at the "Who's Who" among tdhe Harvard regime not overlooking Captain Charles Pratt who is quite a versatile performer, being a adept in throwing the 16-pound shot as he is at following a football and Bill Bingham the athletic director who is as much a westerner in manner as "Chuck" Carney and "Duke" Dunne, the assistant coaches. Bill is well remembered as one of the greatest middle-distance runners a man who would have been a record holder but for the fact that Ted Meredith was just a little bit better.

Head Coach Arnold Horween is now in the throes of his second season at Cambridge. "Throes" is right if you'll pardon a pun, for Harvard teams under "Bob" Fisher never threw half the forward passes that the Cantabs of 1927 throw. Horween is a young man with western ideas who played good football at Harvard and graduated in 1921. The new "Haughton system" lost five games in 1926, but it is a safe bet that the score will be better at the end of the present season.

"Chuck" Carney end coach, was one of the Western Coference's great athletes in 1920. His 60 baskets in one season still stands as a Big Ten basketball record and at Champaign and Urbana, Illinois they still talk of the way All-American Chuck played in that 1910 Ohio State game. With barely a minute left to play and the Buckeyes leading 7 to 6 Walquist and Carney completed six out of seven forward passes advancing the ball 65 yards to the Ohio State 20 yard line where Fletcher kicked the field goal that won the game 9 to 7.

"Duke" Dunne who coaches the guards, was captain of the 1922 Michigan team and represented the United States in the 1920 Olympic games at Antwerp.

Feg Murray Says.

May I nominate for a 1927 All-American team, composed entirely of football captains the following:

Ends: Weinstein, New York Aggies and Cohen, St. Lawrence; tackles, Lofgren, Colorado Mines and Kuehl, La Crosse Teacher's College; guards, Thingstad, Albion College and Versteeg, Central; center, Behrhorst, Allegheny; quarterback, Olson, Bethany; halfbacks, Donstein, College of City of New York and Lautzenheiser, University of Chattanooga; full back, O'Shaughnessy, St, Edward's.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Walter Johnson, grand old man of the playing ranks of the American League, becomes manager and pitcher for the Newark club of the International League.

For the simple reason, apparently, that Paul Block, newspaper publisher owner of the Newark franchise, and well aware of the value of Johnson's popularity and baseball ability, made him a "white man's" offer.

I don't know much about the inner workings of the inner circles in baseball, but I have seen enough tried and true veterans slip out of the majors without so much as a "thank you" letter from the moguls that I have ceased to ponder over the matter.

Walter Johnson's passing proves that baseball is a business, even with Clark Griffith, who profited most by Johnson's greatness.

Now that the hurrah and hooplah of the baseball and alleged world's series that followed have died down, fans in the various cities are engaged in the noble pastime of arguing out what was wrong with the home team, and what, if anything, is to be done about it.

Detroit fans, judging from the comment passed on by Detroit scribes, are inclined to lay much of the blame for the failure of the Tigers to finish at least third in the race of 1927 to Heinie Manush's batting slump.

Heinie did hit the toboggan. There was as much difference between the size of his batting average in 1926 and 1927 as there is in the size of the graduate's head before and after applying for his first job.

Manush led the league in 1926 with an average of .377. The late lamented campaign found him with an average of .298—79 points difference.

He slammed out just 47 base hits fewer than in 1926. And what a difference one way or the other those 47 hits might have made.

The Tigers failed to land in third place—and the "place money" from the world's series by a few points.

Now, as to whether or not Manush was entirely responsible for the slump is another matter. Cobb rated Manush as one of the great natural ball players of the younger group. Manush was mentioned frequently as the most likely candidate for Ty's shoes.

Moriarty, who took over the management of the Tigers last winter, had Manush on the bench for a time early in the season.

Serious Fire Is Narrowly Averted

Rubbish In Rear Of Markets Fired—Firemen Quell Blaze Quickly

Downtown business district was threatened with a serious fire for a short time shortly after nine o'clock last night, when an alarm from box 25 called city firemen to the rear of the National Market on East Washington street.

Here firemen found that the fire was among some rubbish piled in the warehouse or shed at the rear of the main storeroom, in which the Hannon Fish Market, the National Meat Market and other firms conduct business.

The firemen found a threatening condition on their arrival. The blaze was going to the roof of the warehouse and spreading toward the main storeroom. The blaze was put out with chemicals and there was little actual loss, as the stuff consumed, had been thrown away and had no value.

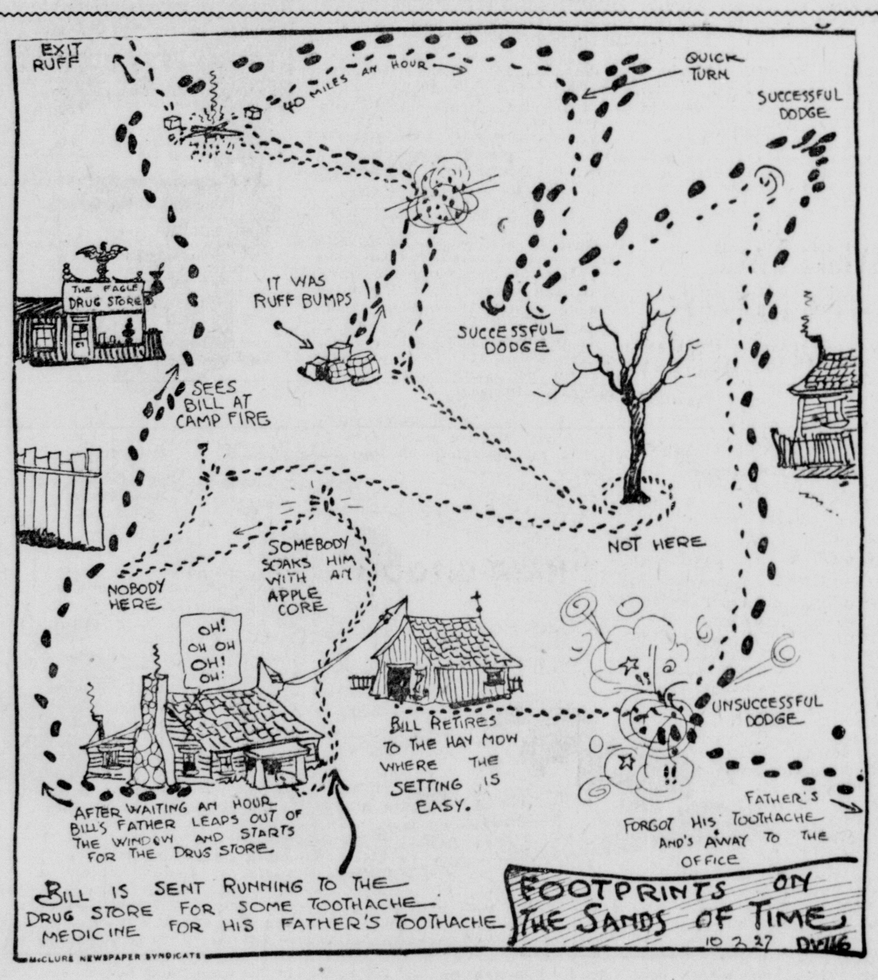

The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is assumed that owing to the fact that the place was not locked and that it has frequently been entered by passersby, that some person may have set the rubbish on fire, while lighting a cigaret in the place.

The fire was discovered by some boys going along Sycamore Way, on which the warehouse is located. They made their discovery known to a man in the Opera House Taxi Service office on North Cochran Way and the firemen were called.

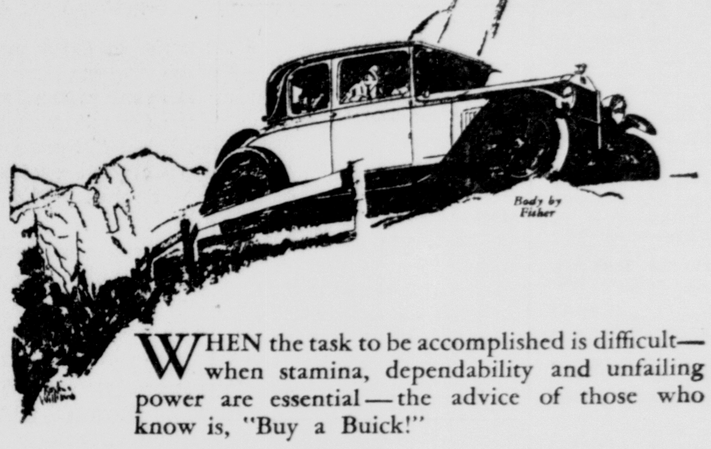

The University of Illinois football team is accompanied by a band which has been praised by John Philip Sousa as "the greatest college band in the world". The band comprises 160 student musicians.

New Chrysler 52 $725 F.O.B. DETROIT

So very much more for your money

IN PERFORMANCE, in comfort and in luxury the New Chrysler "52" is head and shoulders above anything and everything else in its particular price field.

Not only because of its smooth speed capacity of 52 miles and more an hour; its remarkable snap and dash in getaway; and its high gasoline mileage—

But also because it is so much larger; its sturdy wood and steel body is so much more substantial; its ample seats are so much wider, deeper and more restful; its fittings and equipment are so much richer and more elegant; and its color harmonies are so much more striking than any other car with which you might contrast it.

Coupe	$725
Roadster (with rumble seat)	725
2-door Sedan	735
4-door Sedan	795
De Luxe Sedan	875

All prices f. o. b. Detroit, subject to current Federal excise tax. Chrysler dealers are in position to extend the convenience of time payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan.

All Chrysler cars have the additional protection against theft of the Fedco System of numbering.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT.

Most of us speak reproachfully of the housewife who serves her family a delicatessen meal. It is necessary once in a while however and if it is tastefully served and the articles well chosen it may not be such a bad meal after all. Here is suggested a menu the different foods for which may be purchased on the way home from business or club.

Sliced Ham — Potato Salad
Baked Beans or Spaghetti
Pickles — Chill Sauce
Baked Apples or Canned Fruit
Cookies Coffee.

Today's Recipes.

To prepare the meal in record time the beans of spaghetti should be opened and the contents put on to heat. The coffee should be made and put on to "perk' or boil. The baked apples or canned fruit—if your delicatessen does not have the apples—should be chilled in the ice box the meat arranged on a platter and surrounded by the salad and pickles. Set the table, cut the bread and serve.

SUGGESTIONS.

Marmalade Toast.

Takes slices of bread, spread with butter and orange and lemon marmalade. Put together and toast on both sides.

Obstinate Stopper.

To remove an obstinate stopper from a glass bottle dip a piece of woolen cloth into boiling water and wrap it tightly about the neck of the bottle. In a few minutes the stopper can be removed.

Removing Varnish, Paint.

Varnish and paint stains in coarse fabrics may be removed by first saturating them with turpentine and then washing.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—All sections of the market participated in a moderate upswing of stock prices in the first period of trading today. The opening was irregular, with professionals "testing out" a few of the stocks which showed conspicuous weakness near the end of Tuesday's session. Mack Trucks sold down more than a point, opening up a gap of 7 points from yesterday's high.

Technical market conditions, rather than new developments in industry and trade governed the swing of stock prices in this period. Evidently the short position of U. S. Steel, General Motors and other speculative leaders was still over-crowded, and the professionals were active buyers of these stocks. The leadership of the advance was still poor, including the specialties like Radio and Texas Sulphur. Radio Corporation sold above 68 for a new peak for the year, in further reflection of its favorable third quarterly earnings statement.

The weekly car loading reports showed a gain of about 8,000 cars in the volume of revenue freight. Steel mills operations were reported at a slightly higher rate the weekly crude oil production report showed further shrinkage in the Seminole district, with West Texas evidently under control call money and commodity markets were practically unchanged.

Forty Machines Ruined By Fire At Wilmington

Fire In Garage At Wilmington, Delaware, Does Damage To Forty Automobiles

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 2.—Forty automobiles were destroyed or badly damaged in a spectacular garage fire here today.

The blaze gutted the three-story brick garage of Alfred Chambers, causing a loss estimated at $50,000.

Harry Raymond, 40, watchman and mechanic, was overcome on the second floor but was rescued by firemen. Five families were driven to the streets by the flames.

Firemen were hampered by the exploding gasoline tanks of the destroyed machines. The fire was one of the most spectacular here in years, resulting in the calling out of the entire fire department.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Out through the fields and forests of Lawrence county there is a bombardment going on this week that sounds like a vest pocket edition of the St. Mihiel drive. Cannonading echoes and re-echoes through the trees and a flock of rabbits have fallen victim to the unerring marksmanship of Lawrence county nimrods.

But of all the hunting, Policeman Clarence Samuels modestly claims the record for speed. "Officer Samuels, "Ducky", if you know him by that name, went hunting on the first day of the season.

In five minutes he had five rabbits, the limit of a day's hunt. Five minutes, five shots, five rabbits, which is nearly as perfect an average as one can get.

Bandits and other gentry of the criminal class, take notice.

Not all of the rabbits are out in the townships. Attorney Charles Matthews claims, and with a straight face, that in the thicket back of his home on North Jefferson street there are at least 1,000 rabbits. He says that he cannot raise any garden truck on his yard, that the voracious bunnies chew up everything of that nature, and if I get him right, the neighbors have to go armed at night to prevent a mass attack by the rabbits.

On the last day of the Community Chest drive M. J. Donnelly read a telegram from Edward A. Woods contributing $100 to the chest. Mr. Donnelly read a postscript to the telegram in which mention was made of a new tie being sent Fred L. Rentz, who has a flair for hot ties.

Later Mr. Donnelly explained that the postscript was a little joke, but the sequel of it proved it otherwise. In the next morning's mail there was a tie from Mr. Woods for Mr. Rentz which simply beggars description. It looks like a drunken sunset and has all the earmarks of being the work of an extreme cubist. But the laugh is that Mr. Woods knew nothing of the postscript.

After seeing "The Beggar's Opera" one is convinced that the art of wisecracking is an old one. And after all, most of our modern "blues" songs are patterned after the classics, and many of our smart sayings come from the old writers. For instance, you recall that phrase so popular a few years ago, "nobody home".

Now that wasn't new. Either Addison or Steele, I've forgotten which, seems to have originated it in the following phrase: "you scratch your pate and fancy wit will come, knock as you please, there's nobody home."

And to go farther, the song, "Yes, We Have No Bananas" had several steals in it from old classics. The chorus opens with a bar or two from the Hallelujah Chorus, later on there are a few bars from "I Dreamt I Dwelled in Marble Halls", and other classics have their share in it.

And now the radio show in the Cathedral.

Radio Show Will Open This Evening

Included in the show are the latest developments in the radio art, the last word in receivers and speakers and a wealth of interesting accessories.

The show will last until Saturday night and should attract thousands of radio fans throughout the county.
